AS this Collection hath been so well accepted of, as to pass through so many Editions, I think it needless to take any further Notice of some Objections heretofore (of no great Weight) against it.

I am not insensible, that a Work of this Kind should much rather have been the Product of a Publick than a Private Hand: But as none appear'd to do it; as there seem'd to most to be a general want of it, and as that want, I thought, might in a great Measure be supplied by a proper Collection of fit Materials, from the Writings of some of our most Eminent Divines, I thought I might safely undertake it, for the Benefit of myself and others; especially too, since the 67th Canon of our Church seem'd to give me full Liberty so to do.

The PREFACE.

Upon these Motives, and with this View I first set about it, and have done the best I can to bring it to Perfection ; short indeed of what an abler Hand might have performed, and imperfect still, I fear, after all my Care ; but nevertheless, as I had none but good and justifiable Ends in it, I humbly presume I shall the more easily be forgiven its lesser Imperfection, for the Sake of that greater Good, which is intended by the Whole.

*Such as are desirous of seeing more upon this Subject, may consult Dr. Stern, De Visitatione Infirmorum, Mr. Kettlewell's Trial and Judgment of the Soul in Sicknes, The Sick Man visited, &c.*

The Reason of my annexing the Offices of Baptism, so foreign to the rest of the Matter, I must own to be purely from the Request of some who thought, if they were Printed in so fair a Character, in a Book so frequently made Use of, they might be serviceable to many in some particular Cases, and of no ill Consequence (as far as they or I could apprehend) in any : For though it hath been objected that this might open a Gap for too great a Liberty of baptizing in Private, yet I can't see how Occasion can be given or taken for it from hence, any more than from their being in the Communion-Book :

Ministers to visit the Sick.

WHEN any Person is dangerously sick in any Parish, the Minister or Curate, having Knowledge thereof, shall resort unto him or her, (if the Disease be not known, or probably suspected to be infectious) to instruct and comfort them in their Distress, according to the Order of the Communion, if he be no Preacher; or if he be a Preacher, then as he shall think most needful and convenient, &c.

The Manner of Visiting the Sick: Or, The Assistance that is to be given to Sick and Dying Persons by the Ministry of the Clergy.

S E C T. I.

IN all the Days of our Spiritual Warfare, from our Baptism to our Burial, God has appointed his Servants, the Ministers of the Church, to supply the Necessities of the People, by Ecclesiastical Duties: And prudently to guide, and carefully to judge concerning Souls committed to their Charge.

And therefore they who all their Lifetime derive Blessings from the Fountain of Grace, by the Channels of Ecclesiastical Ministries, ought then more-especially to do it, in the Time of their Sicknes, when their Needs are more prevalent, according to that known Apostolical Injunction, Is any Man sick among you, let him send for the Elders of the Church, and let them pray over him, &c. The

2 The Manner of Visiting the Sick.

The Sum of the Duties and Offices, respectively implied in these Words, may be collected from the following Rules.

S E C T. II.

Rules for the Manner of visiting the Sick.

1. LET the Minister be sent to, not when the Sick is in the Agonies of Death, as it is usual so to do, but before his Sickness encreases too much upon him : For when the Soul is confused and disturbed by the Violence of the Distemper, and Death begins to stare the Man in the Face, there is little Reason to hope for any good Effect from the spiritual Man's Visitation. For how can any regular Administration take Place, when the Man is all over in a Disorder ? How can he be called upon to confess his Sins, when his Tongue falters, and his Memory fails him ? How can he receive any Benefit by the Prayers which are offered up for him, when he is not able to give Attention to them ? Or how can he be comforted upon any sure Grounds of Reason or Religion, when his Reason is just expiring, and all his Notions of Religion together with it ? Or, when the Man,

The Manner of Visiting the Sick. 3

Man, perhaps, had never any real Sentiments of Religion before ?

It is therefore a Matter of sad Consideration, That the Generality of the World look upon the Minister, in the Time of their Sickness, as the sure Fore-runner of Death ; and think his Office so much relate to another World, that he is not to be treated with, as long as there is any Hope of living in this : Which is a fatal Mistake that many Thousands, 'tis to be feared, run them selves into ; who neglecting to set their House in order, in the Beginning of their Sickness, drive it off till the last ; And then the Minister is sent for in a Hurry, and he comes and says a few Prayers over the Sick, and soon after the Man dies, and God only knows what becomes of his Soul.

To prevent therefore so great a Hazard of miscarrying, it is highly requisite, the Minister be sent for, when the sick Person is able to be conversed with and instructed ; and can understand, or be taught to understand the Case of his Soul, and the Rules of his Conscience, and all the several Bearings of Religion, with respect to God, his Neighbour, and Himself. For to prepare a Soul for its Change is a Work of great Difficulty ; and the Intercourses of the Minister

nister with the Sick have so much Variety in them, that they are not to be transacted at once. Sometimes there is need of special Remedies against Impatience, and the Fear of Death; not only to animate, but to make the Person desirous and willing to die. Sometimes it is requisite to awaken the Conscience by the Terrors of the Lord; to open, by Degrees, all the Labyrinths of Sin, (those innumerable Windings and Turnings which insensibly lead Men into Destruction) which the habitual Sensualist can never be able to discover, unless directed by the particular Grace of God, and the Assistance of a faithful and judicious Guide. Sometimes there is need of the Balm of Comfort, to pour in Oil and Wine (with the good Samaritan) into the bleeding Wound, by representing the tender Mercies of God, and the Love of his Son Jesus Christ to Mankind: And at other Times it will be necessary to reprove, reprove, and exhort with all Long-suffering and Doctrine: So that a Clergy-man's Duty, in the Visitation of the Sick, is not over at once; but at one Time he must pray, at another Time he must assist, advise and direct; at another, he must open to him the Nature of Repetance, and exhort him to a Confession of his Sins, both to God and Man, in

in all those Cases, which require it ; and at another Time, he must give him Absolution, and the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of our Lord.

- And indeed he, that ought to watch all the Periods of his Life, in the Days of his Helth, least he should be surprized and overcome, had need be watched when he is sick, and assisted and called upon, and reminded of the several Parts of his Duty in every instant of his Temptation.

The Want of this makes the Visitations of the Clergy fruitless, because they are not suffer'd to imprint those proper Effects upon the Sick, which are needful in so important a Ministration.

2. When the Minister is come, let him discourse concerning the Causes of Sick-ness, and by a general Argument move him to a Consideration of his Condition. Let him call upon him first in general Terms, to set his House in order, to trim and adorn his Lamp, and to prepare himself for another World ; and then let him perform the Customary Duties of Prayer, and afterwards descend to all other Particulars, as Occasion shall offer, and Circumstances require.

3. According to the Condition of the Man, and the Nature of his Sickness, every Act of the Visitation is to be proportioned. If his Condition be full of Pain and Infirmary, the Exhortation ought to be shorter, and the Minister more instant in Prayer: And the little Service the sick Man can do for himself, should be supplied by the charitable Care of his Guide, who is in such a Case to speak more to God for him than to talk to him: For the Prayer of the righteous, when it is fervent, hath a Promise to prevail much in the behalf of the Sick Person: But Exhortations must prevail by their own proper Weight, and not by the Passion of the Speaker; and therefore should be offer'd when the Sick is able to receive them. And even in this Assistance of Prayer, if the Sick Man joins with the Minister, the Prayers should be short, frequent, fervent, and ejaculatory, apt rather to comply with his weak Condition, than wearisome to his Spirits, in tedious and long Offices. But in case it appears he hath sufficient Strength to go along with the Minister, he is then more at liberty to offer up long Petitions for him.

6 The Manner of Visiting the Sick:

After the Minister hath made this Preparatory Entrance to this Work of much Time and Deliberation, he may descend to the Particulars of his Duty, in the following Method. SECT.

S E C T. III.

Of Instructing the sick Man in the Nature of Repentance, and Confession of his Sins.

TH E first Duty to be rightly stated to the Sick Man, is that of Repentance ; in which the Ministers cannot be more serviceable to him, than by laying before him a regular Scheme of it, and exhorting him at the same Time to a free and ingenuous Declaration of the State of his Soul. For unless they know the Manner of his Life, and the several Kinds and Degree of those Sins, which require his penitential Sorrow, or Restitution, either they can do nothing at all, or nothing of Advantage and Certainty. Wherefore the Minister may move him to this, in the following Manner.

Arguments and Exhortations to move the Sick Man to Repentance, and Confession of his Sins.

I. That Repentance is a Duty indispensably necessary to Salvation. * That to this End, all the Preachings and Endeavours of the Prophets and Apostles are directed, rected. * That our Saviour came down from Heaven on purpose to call Sinners to Repentance. * That as it is a necessary Duty at all Times, so more especially in the Time of Sickneſs, when we are commanded in a particular manner to ſet our Houſe in order. That 'tis a Work of great Difficulty, conſiſting in general of a Change of Mind, and a Change of Life. Upon which account it is called in Scripture, a State of Regeneration, or new Birth; a Conversion from Sin to God; a being renewed in the Spirit of our Minds; a putting off the old Man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful Luſts of the Fleſh, and a putting on the new Man, which is created in Righteouſneſs and true Holineſs. * That ſo great a Change as this is not to be effected at once, but requires the utmoſt Self-Denial and Reſolution to put in Execution, conſiſting in general of the following Particulars: 1. A ſorrowful Senſe of our Sins. 2. An humble Confession of them. 3. An unfeigned Abhorrence and Forſaking of them, and Turning to the Lord our God with all our Hearts. 4. A patient Continuance in Well-doing to the End of our Lives.

8 The Manner of Visiting the Sick.

 Theſe are the conſtituent and eſſential Parts of a true Repentance; which may ſeve-

severally be displayed from the following Motives of Reason and Scripture, as Opportunity shall serve, and the Sick Man's Condition permit.

The first Part of a true Repentance is a sorrowful Sense of our Sins, which naturally produceth this good Effect, as we may learn from St. Paul. (2 Cor. 7. 10.) where he tells us, That godly Sorrow worketh Repentance. Without it, to be sure, there can be no such Thing. For how can a Man repent of that, which he is not sorry for? Or how can any one sincerely ask Pardon and Forgiveness, for what he is not concern'd or troubled about?

A sorrowful Sense, then, of our Sins, is the first Part of a true Repentance, the Necessity whereof may be seen from the grievous and abominable Nature of Sin; as, 1. That it made so wide a Separation betwixt God and Man, that nothing but the Blood of his only-begotten Son could suffice to atone for its intolerable Guilt. 2. That it carries along with it the basest Ingratitude, as being done against our heavenly Father, in whom we live and move and have our Being. 3. That the Consequence of it is nothing less than eternal Ruin, in that the Wrath of God is revealed against all impenitent Sinners, and the

10 The Manner of Visiting the Sick.

Wages of Sin is Death, not only temporal, but eternal.

From these, and the like Considerations, the Penitent may further learn, that to be sorry for our Sins, is a great and punishing Duty: That it does not consist in a little trivial Concern, a superficial Sigh, or Tear, or a Calling our selves Sinners, &c. but in a real ingenuous, pungent, and afflicting Sorrow. For can that which cast our Parents out of Paradise at first; that brought down the Son of God afterwards from Heaven, and put him at last to such a cruel and shameful Death, be now thought to be done away by a single Tear or a Groan? Can so base a Piece of Ingratitude, as rebelling against the Lord of Glory, who gives us all we have, be suppos'd to be pardon'd by a slender submission? Or can that, which deserves the Torment of Hell, be sufficiently atton'd for by a little Indignation, and superficial Remorse?

True Repentance, therefore, is ever accompanied with a deep and afflicting Sorrow; a Sorrow that will break the Heart in Pieces, and make us so irreconcilable to Sin, as that we shall chuse rather to die than to live in it. For so the bitterest Accents of Grief are all ascrib'd to a true Repentance in Scripture; such as a Weeping sorely soresly, or bitterly; a Weeping Day and Night, a Repenting in Dust and Ashes, a putting on Sack-cloth, Fasting and Prayer, &c. Thus holy David; I am troubled, I am bowed down greatly, I go Mourning all the Day long, and that by reason of mine Iniquities, which are gone over my Head, and, as an heavy Burden, are too heavy for me to bear, Psal. 38. 4, 6. Thus Ephraim could say, After that I was Instructed, I smote upon my Thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the Reproach of my Youth, Jer. 31. 19.

And this is the proper Satisfaction for Sin, which God expects, and hath promis'd to accept, as Psal. 51. 17. The Sacrifices of God are a broken Spirit: A broken and contrite Heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

2. The next Thing requisite in a true Repentance, is Confession of Sins, which naturally follows the other; for if a Man be so deeply affected with Sorrow for his Sins, he'll be glad to be rid of them, as soon as he can; and the Way for this, is humbly to confess them to God, who hath promised to forgive us if we do. I said I will confess my Sins unto the Lord, saith the Psalmist, and so thou forgavest the Wickedness of my Sin, Psal. 32. 6. So Prov. 28. 13. and 1 John 1. 9. If we confess our Sins,

12 The Manner of Visiting the Sick.

God is faithful and just to forgive us our Sins, and to cleanse us from all Unrighteousness. So the returning Prodigal went to his Father with an humble Confession of his Baseness, and was receiv'd into Favour again, Luke 15. 18, 19.

And because the Number of our Sins are like the Hairs of our Head, or the Sand of the Sea, and almost as various too in their Kinds as their Numbers; Confession must needs be a very extensive Duty, and require the strictest Care and Examination of our selves. For who can tell how oft he offendeth? saith David, O cleanse thou me from my secret Faults!

The Penitent, therefore, should be reminded, that his Confession be as minute and particular as it can; since the more particular the Confession is, to be sure, the more sincere and safe the Repentance.

And not only to God, but to Man likewise, in several Instances, is our Confession due: For so we are expressly commanded by St. James, to confess our faults one to another, Ch. 5. 16. And both Jews and Christians, we find, began their Repentance with this. Thus when Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the Region round about Jordan, were converted by the Preaching of John the Baptist, the Text says, They went out to him and were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their Sins, Matt. 3. 5, 6. So the Greeks and Jews of Ephesus, that were converted to Christianity by the Preaching of St. Paul, made their Entrance into it by confession of their Sins, and Declaration of their Deeds, Acts 19. 18.

And this is the best Test that any one can give of his Humility, Sincerity, and Conversion, when he thus judges and condemns himself, and gives Glory to God, as 'tis particularly so called in the case of Achan. By confessing our Sins in this manner, we effectually kill the Root of Pride, and acknowledge the Justice of God in punishing us: And by such an Act of Judging our selves here, we may prevent the more angry Judgment of God hereafter; for if we would judge our selves, as St. Paul says, 1 Cor. 11. 31. we should not be judged of the Lord.

The Penitent, therefore, should be instructed, that all Sins, which require particular Acts of Restitution, ought to be confess'd to the injur'd Party, and Satisfaction made.

* That in Case of great Inconveniencies (where no real Benefit can accrue to God or Man by it) or in impossible Cases of doing it, (as by the Death or Absence of the Party, &c.) the Confession and Satisfaction is

is then to be made in the most prudential Manner, and to the most proper Person. * That the most proper Person for Confession of Sins in this, and all other Cases which require it, is (generally speaking) the Minister, from whom the Penitent is to receive the Benefit of Absolution, and the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of our Lord. * That all Sins which are of a flagrant Nature, and such as are a Burden to the Conscience, should in all Reason as well as Religion, be confessed to him; since as he is Physician of Souls, he cannot tell how to administer so effectually to their Necessities, if the Case be not open'd to Him (a.)

For a further Motive therefore to this so necessary a Duty, the Penitent should be made sensible of the high Privileges and Authority of the ministerial Office. * That God hath made Ministers the Publishers and Dispensers of his Pardon for Sins, by the Commission of the Sacramental Seals of the Gospel to them, and by the

(a) Si tacuerit qui percussus est, & non egerit poenitentiam, nec vulnus suum Fratri & Magistro voluerit confiteri; Magister qui linguam habet ad curandum, facile ei prodesse non poterit. Power of Absolution confer'd upon their Order. * That to this Purpose they are called Ministers of Reconciliation, and are commanded to restore such as are overtaken in a Fault; and for that End they come to offer their Ministry to reconcile them to God, provided they may have a true and thorough Knowledge of the State of their Case.

That in all this, though there is no Compulsion upon the Penitent, yet if he hide his Sins, he shall not be directed, (as the Wise Man says) but e'er long he must appear before the great Judge of Men and Angels: And his Spirit will then be infinitely more amazed and confounded, to be seen among the Angels of Light with the Works of Darkness upon him, than it would be if he ingenuously confess'd himself to God, in the Presencce of him whom God hath sent to heal him. * That there can be no good Argument against doing of this, but what is deriv'd from Flesh and Blood, from Sins and Infirmities, to all which Confession is a direct Enemy, and therefore should be more readily embraced by every sincere repenting Sinner, &c. (b).

(b) Vid. Bishop Taylor's Holy Dying, p. 192.

16 The Manner of Visiting the Sick.

3. A third thing requisite in a true Repentance is an unfeigned Abhorrence and Forsaking of Sin, and Turning to the Lord our God with all our Hearts.

For so we find them expressly join'd together by St. Paul, when he charges those whom by Vision he was sent to convert, to * change their Mind, and
* ἀπὸ πνεύματος μετανοεῖν. turn to God, and do Works meet for Repentance, Acts 26. 20.

And a little before he says, he was sent to open their Eyes, and turn them from Darkness to Light, and from the Power of Satan unto God, that they may receive Forgiveness of Sins, Ver. 18. And we shall always find, when we are commanded to cease from Evil, it is in order to do Good.

The Penitent, therefore, must be reminded, not only to confess and be sorry for his Sins, but likewise to forsake them. For 'tis He only who confesseth and forsaketh his Sins that shall have Mercy, Prov. 28. 13. And this Forsaking must not be only for the present, during his Sicknes, or for a Week, a Month or a Year, but for his whole Life, be it never so long protracted; which is the

4. Last Thing requisite in a true Repentance, viz. a patient Continuance in well-doing to the End of our Lives. For as the Holy Jesus assures us, that he that holds out to

to the End shall be saved: So does the Spirit of God profess, that if any Man draw back, his Soul shall have no Pleasure in him, Heb. 11. 38. Hence we are said to be Partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our Confidence steadfast to the End, Heb. 3. 14. but not else: For 'tis to him only that overcometh, and keepeth his Works to the End, that our Saviour hath promis'd a Reward, Rev. 2. 26. Hence our Religion is said to be a continual Warfare, and we must be constantly pressing forward toward the Mark of our High Calling, with the Apostle, lest we fail of the Prize.

And this it is which makes a Death-bed Repentance so justly reckoned by all Divines, to be very full of Hazard; such as none, who defer it till then, can depend upon with any real Security. For let a Man be never so seemingly penitent in the Day of his Visitation, yet none but God can tell whether it be sincere or not; since nothing is more common than for those who expressed the greatest Signs of a lasting Repentance, upon a sick Bed, to forget all their Vows and Promises of Amendment, as soon as God had remov'd the Judgment, and restor'd them to their former Health. It happen'd to them according to the true Proverb, as St. Peter says, The Dog is turned ned to his own Vomit again, and the Sorrow that was washed to her wallowing in the Mire, 2 Pet. 2. 22.

The Sick Penitent, therefore, should be often reminded of this ; * That nothing will be look'd upon as true Repentance, but what proceeds from such a right Principle, as will terminate in a holy Life. * That therefore he ought to take great heed, that his Repentance be not only the Effect of his present Danger, but that it be lasting and sincere, bringing forth Works meet for Repentance, should it please God mercifully to prove him by a longer Life.

But here 'tis much to be feared, that after all his endeavours to bring Men to a Sight of themselves, and to repent them truly of their Sins, the spiritual Man will meet with but very little Encouragement : For if we look round the World, we shall find the generality of Men to be of a rude Indifferency, and a fear'd Conscience, and mightily ignorant of their Condition, with respect to another World, being abused by evil Customs and Principles, apt to excuse themselves, and to be content with a certain general and indefinite Confession ; so that if you provoke them never so much to acknowledge their Faults, you shall hardly ever extort any thing farther from them than than this, viz. That they are Sinners, as every Man hath his Infirmary, and they as well as any; but, God be thanked, they have done no Injury to any Man, but are in Charity with all the World: And perhaps they'll tell you, they are no Swearers, nor Adulterers, nor Rebels, &c. but that, God forgive them, they must needs acknowledge themselves to be Sinners in the main, &c. And if you can open their Breast so far, it will be look'd upon sufficient: To go any farther, will be to do the Office of an Accuser, not of a Friend.

But, which is yet worse, there are a great many Persons who have been so used to an habitual Course of Sin, that the Crime is made natural and necessary to them, and they have no Remorse of Conscience for it, but think themselves in a State of Security very often, when they stand upon the Brink of Damnation. This happens in the Cases of Drunkenness and Luxury, and Idleness, and mis-spending of the Sabbath, and in Lying and vain Jestings, and Slandering of others; and particularly in such Evils as the Laws do not punish, nor publick Customs shame, but which are countenanced by potent Sinners, or wicked Fashions, or good Nature and mistaken Civilities.

20 The Manner of Visiting the Sick.

In these and the like Cases the spiritual Man must endeavour to awaken their Consciences, by such Means as follow.

Arguments and general Heads of Discourse by way of Consideration, to awaken a stupid Conscience, and the careless Sinner.

1. And here let the Minister endeavour to affect his Conscience, by representing to him,

* That Christianity is a holy and strict Religion : * That the Promises of Heaven are so great, that 'tis not reasonable to think, a small Matter and a little Duty will procure it for us : * That some Persons, who have lived strictly for many Years together, have yet miscarried at last, by some darling and unobserved Crime ; as a secret Hypocrisy, or latent Pride, or Ambition, or Envy, or Malice, or the like : That much less therefore can They hope to receive so great Portions of Felicity, whose whole Life hath been a continual Declension from the Strictness and Severity of the Laws of God : * That religious Persons are always the most scrupulous ; and that to feel nothing is not a Sign of Life, but of Death : * That we live

live in an Age in which that which is called and esteemed a holy Life, in the Days of the Apostles and Primitive Christianity would have been esteemed indifferent, sometimes scandalous, and always cold : * That when we have done our best all our Righteousness is but as filthy Rags ; and we can never do too much to make our Calling and Election sure : * That every good Man ought to be suspicious of himself, fearing the worst, that he may provide for the best : * That even St. Paul, and several other remarkable Saints, had at some times great Apprehensions of failing of the mighty Prize of their high Calling : * That we are commanded to work out our Salvation with Fear and Trembling ; inasmuch as we shall be called to an Account, not only for our sinful Words and Deeds, but even for our very Thoughts : that if we keep all the Commandments of God, and yet offend in one Point, (i. e. wilfully) we are guilty of all, Jam. 2. 10. * That no Man can tell how oft he offendeth, the best of Lives being full of innumerable Stops and Blemishes in the Sight of God, however they may appear before Men : * That no Man ought to judge of the State of his Soul by the Character he has in the World ; for a great many Persons go to Hell, who have lived in a fair Reputation here ; and a great many on the other hand go to Heaven, who have been loaded with Infamy and Reproach : * That the Work of Religion is a Work of great Difficulty, Trial and Temptation : That many are called, but few are chosen : * That strait is the Gate, and narrow is the Way that leadeth to Life, and few there be that find it : And lastly, * That if the Righteous themselves shall scarcely be saved, there will be no Place for the Unrighteous and Sinner to appear in, but of Horror and Amazement.

By these and suchlike Motives to Consideration, the spiritual Man is to awaken the careless Sinner, and to bring him to Repentance and Confession of his Sins ; and if either of himself, or by this Means. the sick Man is brought to a right Sense of his Condition ; then,

2. Let the Minister proceed to assist him in the understanding the Number of his Sins, i. e. the several kinds of them, and the various ways of prevaricating with the Divine Commandments. Let him make him sensible how every Sin is aggravated, more or less, according to the different Circumstances of it ; as by the Greatness or Smallness of the Temptation, the Scandal it gives to others, the Dishonour it does to Religion,

The Manner of Visiting the Sick. 23

Religion, the Injury it brings along with it to those whom it more immediately concerns, the Degrees of Boldness and Impudence, the Choice in acting it, the Continuance in it, the Expence, Desires, and Habit of it, &c

3. Let the sick Man, in the Scrutiny of his Conscience and Confession of his Sins, be carefully reminded to consider those Sins, which are no where condemn'd but in the Court of Conscience. For there are certain secret Places of Darkness, artificial Blinds of the Devil, with which he uses to hide our Sins from us, and to incorporate them into our affections, by the general Practice of others, and the mistaken Notions of the World. As, 1. Many Sins before Men are accounted honourable; such as, Fighting a Duel, returning Evil for Evil, Blow for Blow, &c. Robbing with a Navy, or unjustly invading a Neighbour Country by Force of Arms, &c. 2. Others seem to have the Countenance of the Law, as unlimited Usury; which, because Usury it self is permitted in all Countries, Men are apt to run into it upon every Occasion; not considering that Usury, when it is not restrain'd within its due Bounds and proper Circumstances, is a certain Sin. 3. Some things are not forbidden by the Law of

Man,

24 The Manner of Visiting the Sick.

Man, as Lying in ordinary Discourse, Jearing, Scoffing, intemperate Eating, Ingratitude, Selling too dear, circumventing another in Contracts, outwitting and over-reaching in Bargains, extorting and taking advantage of the Necessities or Ignorance of other People, importunate Intreaties and Temptations of Persons to many Instances of Sin, as Intemperance, Pride and Ambition, &c. All which therefore do strangely blind the Understanding, and captivate the Affections of sinful Men, and lead them into a thousand Snares of the Devil they are not aware of. 4. Some others do not reckon they sin against God, if the Laws have seized upon the Person : And many who are imprison'd for Debt, think themselves disobliged from Payment ; and when they pay the Penalty, think they owe nothing for the Scandal and Disobedience. 5. Some Sins are thought not considerable, but go under the Titles of Sins of Infirmary, or inseparable Accidents of Mortality ; such as idle Thoughts, foolish Talking, loose Revellings, Impatience, Anger, and all the Events of evil Company. 6. Lastly, Many Things are thought to be no Sins ; such as mis-pending of their Time, whole Days or Months of useless or impertinent Em-

Employment, long Gaming, winning Mens Money in great Portions, censuring Mens Actions, Curiosity, equivocating in the Prices of buying and Selling, rudeness in Speech or Behaviour, speaking uncharitable Truths, doing good to evil Purposes, and the like.

These are some of those artificial Veils, and Coverings, under the dark Shadow of which, the Enemy of Mankind makes very many to lie hid from themselves, blinding them with false Notions of Honour, and the mistaken Opinions and Practices of the World with publick Permission and Impunity, or (it may be) a temporal Penalty; or else with Prejudice, or Ignorance and Infirmary, and direct Error in Judgment.

Now in all these Cases, the Ministers are to be inquisitive and strictly careful, that such kind of Fallacies prevail not over the Sick; but that those Things, which passed without Observation before, may now be brought forth, and pass under the Severity of a Strict and impartial Censure, Religious Sorrow and Condemnation.

4. To this may be added, for the Likeness of the Thing, that there be made a general Display of the Neglect and Omission of our Duty; for in them lies the bigger half of our Failings : and yet in many Instances they are undiscern'd ; because our Consciences have not been made tender and perceptible of them. But whoever will cast up his Accounts, even with a superficial Eye, will quickly find, that he hath left undone, for the generality, as many Things which he ought to have done, as he hath committed those he ought not to have done : Such as the neglect of Publick or Private Prayer, of reading the Scriptures, and instructing his Family, or those that are under him, in the Principles of Religion : The not beating down and discountenancing Sin to his Power, especially in the Personages of Great Men : The not redeeming the Time, and growing in Grace, and doing all the Good he can in his Generation : The frequent Omissions of the great Duty of Charity, in visiting the Sick, relieving the Needy, and comforting the Afflicted : The want of Obedience, Duty and Respect to Superiors, Parents and Governors, ecclesiastical and civil : The doing the Work of God negligently, or not discharging himself with that Fidelity, Care and Exactness which is incumbent upon him, in the Station wherein the Providence of God hath placed him, &c.

5. With respect to those Sins which are committed against Man, and so are particularly to be confess'd to Man, the Minister should warn the Penitent, not to deceive himself by a partial Confession; because in such a Case he cannot be clear'd in the Accounts of the Almighty by a partial Satisfaction. Not that he is to enquire into every particular Circumstance of Time, Manner, Place, Quality, or the Names of the Persons, those Sins were transacted with or committed against, (for this would be an indecent and unwarrantable Piece of Curiosity) but only to represent to him, that he can have no Assurance of his Pardon, unless he is willing to make all suitable Amends and Satisfaction to his offended and injur'd Brethren; as for Instance, if he hath liv'd in Enmity with any, that he should labour to be reconciled to them; if he is in Debt, that he should do his utmost to discharge it; or if he hath injur'd any one in his Substance or Credit, that he should endeavour to make Restitution in Kind for the one, and all possible Satisfaction for the other, by humbling himself to the offended Person, and beseeching him to forgive him.

6. If the sick Person be of evil Report, the Minister should take care, some Way or other, to make him sensible of it, so as to shew an effectual Sorrow and Repentance. This will best be done by prudent Hints, and artful Insinuations, of recalling those things to his Mind, whereof he is accused by the Voice of Fame, or to which the Temptations, perhaps of his Calling, more immediately subject him to. Or if he will not understand, when he is secretly prompted, he must be asked in plain Terms concerning these Matters. He must be told of the evil Things which are spoken of him in Publick, and of the usual Temptations of his Calling.

And it concerns the Minister to follow this Advice, without Partiality or Fear, or Interest, or Respect of Persons, in much Simplicity and Prudence, having no other Consideration before him, but the conscientious Discharge of his Duty, and the Salvation of the Person under his Care.

7. The Minister, in further Discharge of his Duty to the Sick, must be careful to observe, that he impose not upon himself, by some one or other good Quality remarkable in him. For there are several Dispositions which are good by Accident, and not by Principle. Some are charitable to the Poor out of natural Tender-heartedness; and the same good Nature makes them easie and and compliant with Persons given to drink, and to ev'ry Temptation which is thrown in their Way: Others are very just and punctual Observers of their Word with Men, but make no scruple of breaking their Promises with God. And several other seeming Virtues there are, which pass as real in the Opinion of the World, but yet upon Examination are found to be none. And yet the Devil hath so blinded the Eyes of Men, that few, even of those Persons who stand in most need of discerning it, are sensible of the Fallacy. Wherefore it concerns the Minister, in all these Cases, to pull off the Vizor, and rightly to distinguish betwixt a real and a seeming Virtue.

8. The Sick Person is likewise to be examined concerning his Faith, whether he firmly believes, and has a true Notion of all the Articles of the Christian Religion, as they are excellently summ'd up in the Apostle's Creed: For in order to Salvation, it is indispensably required of us, that we should Believe as well as Do aright. And therefore the Minister ought to be as particular in this case, as the former; especially with regard to the great and fundamental Articles of our Faith.

9. With respect to his temporal Concerns, the Sick is to be advised to set ev'ry thing thing in order, and (if he hath not already) to make his Will as soon as he can. For if he recovers, this cannot be detrimental ; but if he dies, it will be of great Comfort and satisfaction to him. And here it must be remembred, that he distributes ev'ry thing according to the exact Rules of Justice, and with such a due Care, as to prevent all Law Suits, and Contentions for the future ; and, if he be able, he is to be admonished to do something likewise out of Charity, and for the sake of his poor Brethren.

10. In all the Course of his Visitation, the Minister should frequently be exhorting the Sick Man to Patience and a blessed Resignation to the Will of God ; and not to look upon his Sicknes as barely the Effect of second Causes, but as inflicted on him by Divine Providence for several wise and good Ends : As for the Trial of his Faith ; the Exercise of his Patience ; the Punishment of his Sins ; the Amendment of his Life ; or for the Example of others, who, seeing his good Behaviour in such a Day of Calamity, may glorifie their Father which is in Heaven : Or else, that it is for the increase of his future welfare, in order to raise him the higher in Glory hereafter, by how much the lower he hath been depressed here.

11. When

The Manner of Visiting the Sick. 31

11. When the spiritual Man hath thus discharg'd his Duty, and the Sick hath made him capable of it, by a religious and holy Conformity to all the forementioned particulars respecting his Condition and Circumstances, he may then give him the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. And it is the Minister's Office to invite Sick and dying Persons to his Holy Sacrament, provided they discover a right Sense of their Duty. And,

Lastly, If the Sick Man humble and heartily desires it, and the Minister is thoroughly convinc'd of his sincere and ample Repentance, so that he may safely do it; let him then pronounce that form of Absolution which is prescrib'd in the Visitation-Office; otherwise let no Fondness, or Importunity, or partial Affection oblige him to gratifie the Sick Man herein. For altho' there is a special Commission given by God to the Clergy for absolving Sinners, yet it is only upon Supposition, that they have qualified themselves for it, in all things according to the Laws of Him from whom they receiv'd their Commission.

And therefore (saith the learned Paraphrast of the Book of Common-Prayer) The Priest must, by the Confession, Devotion, and Penitence of the Party, be well satisfied, fied, that he needs, desires, and is prepar'd for this solemn Absolution, before he use it; and then it shall not only declare, but convey the Pardon to him.

Note, That the Holy Sacrament is not to be administred to dying Persons, when they have no use of their Reason to join with the Minister in his Celebration of it. For the Sacraments operate not of themselves, but as they are made efficacious by the joint Consent and Will, and Religious Acts and Devotion of the Party that receives them. And therefore all Fools, and distracted Persons, and Children, and Lethargical and Apoplectical People, or that are any ways senseless and incapable of human and reasonable Acts, are to be assisted only by Prayers: For they may prevail even for the absent, and for Enemies, and for all those who join not in the Office.

Note also, That in Cases of Necessity, where the Sacrament cannot be so conveniently administred; the Sick may be admonish'd to receive it spiritually, i. e. by representing the Symbols of the Body and Blood of our Lord to his Mind, and applying them to himself by Faith, with the same Preparations of Faith and Repentance, as if they were really present. For no

no doubt but God, in such a Case, who considers all things with exact Justice, and chiefly respects the Sincerity of our Hearts and Intentions, will excuse the Absence of the outward and visible Sign, when Necessity, and not Contempt or Neglect, was the Occasion of it.

S E C T. IV.

Of applying Spiritual Remedies to the unreasonable Fears and Dejections of the Sick.

IT sometimes happens that good Men, especially such as have tender Consciences, impatient of the least Sin to which they are arriv'd by a long Habit of Grace, and a continual Observation of their Ways, over-act their part, and turn their Tenderness into Scruples, and are too much dejected and doubtful concerning their future Salvation. In such a case, the Minister is to represent to them, that the Man who is jealous of himself, is always in the safest Condition: That if he fears on his Death-bed, it is but what happens to most considering Men, and that therefore to fear nothing then, is either a singular Felicity, or a dangerous Presumption.

But

34 The Manner of Visiting the Sick.

But to restrain the Extravagance of Fear, let him be re-minded of the Terms of the Gospel: * That 'tis a Covenant of Grace and Mercy to all: * That Christ Jesus came into the World to save Sinners: * That he continues our Advocate in Heaven, and daily intercedes with his Father for us: * That the whole heavenly Host rejoice at the Conversion of a Sinner: * That the Angels are deputed by God, to be our Guardians against violent Surprises and Temptations. * That there are different Degrees of Glory in Heaven, so that if we arrive not at the greatest, we may yet hope, by divine Mercy, that we should not be excluded the less. * That God hath promised to hear the Prayers of the Righteous for his Servants. * That he hath ordained a particular Order of Men in his Church for ever, to dispense a Pardon to repenting Sinners. * That God labours with us by his Spirit, and as it were beseeches us in Christ's stead to be reconciled to him, 2 Cor. 5. 20. That of all his Attributes, he glorifies in none so much as in the Titles of Mercy and Forgiveness. * That therefore we do Injustice to the Father of Mercies, if we retain such hard Thoughts and Suspicions of him. * That God calls upon us to forgive our Brother seventy Times seven seven; and yet all that is but like the forgiving an hundred Pence for his sake who forgives us ten thousand Talents. And therefore if we are ordered to shew such an unrestrained Temper of Forgiveness, it is only to animate us to trust in God's much more unbounded Mercy.

By these and the like Arguments the spiritual Man may raise the drooping Spirits of good Men, in their causeless Dejections. But because there are many other Cases of the like Nature which the Physician of Souls will meet with in visiting his Neighbours, especially such as are of melancholy Dispositions, it may not be improper to mark the Principal of them here, and to prescribe the Remedies.

Considerations to be offer'd to Persons under religious Melancholy.

1. Some truly religious Persons are under sad Apprehensions of not being in the Favour of God, because they find their Devotions to be very often cold, their Prayers distracted, and their Delight in spiritual Matters, not to be so great and permanent, as their Pleasure and Satisfaction is in the Things of the World.

Now

36 The Manner of Visiting the Sick.

Now to such as have made Religion the great Business of their Lives, who have endeavour'd to cure those distracted Thoughts they complain of, and to enflame their Souls with Divine Love and Affection to their Power, it may be offer'd, * That the different Degrees of Affection with which Men serve God, do very often depend upon the Difference of their Tempers and Constitutions; since some are naturally so dull and heavy, as to be very difficultly affected with any Thing, whilst others are of such a tender Make, as to be affected almost with every Thing, so as to be soon exalted with Joy, or depressed with Sorrow. * That Sickness, Losses, and all Afflictions, and even Religion it self, in its long and continual Exercise of Self-denial and Thoughtfulness, do naturally breed such a Tenderness of Spirit. * That the best of Men have never been able at all Times to keep their Affections at an equal height. * That the zeal and warmth with which some are affected, is not always an Argument of their Goodness. * That a sensible Pleasure in religious Exercises (however delightful to our selves) is at no hand necessary to render our Worship acceptable to God; because as his Service is a reasonable Service, they who worship him not as they are affected by their Passions, but as they are led by their Reason, must be suppos'd to act upon a Principle agreeable to his Nature. * That as to Distraction of Thoughts in the Service of God, it is owing likewise for the most part to bodily Weakness ; and therefore if we don't give way to it, but do all we can to suppress those wandring Thoughts, we may be assured we shall never be blamed for being subject to that which by reason of the Weakness of our Nature we cannot help. * That the first Motions of our Mind, as it is impossible to hinder them, so they are reckon'd by all Divines not to be sinful, provided we don't encourage them.

2. Some are extremely dejected, because upon strict Examination of themselves, they find, as they think, all their Religion to be owing to their Fears ; and Fear being a slavish and a sordid Passion, they are apt to conclude, that all those Services which are not the result of a more noble Principle, will be rejected by God, since, as he is all Love and Goodness, and Perfection, he will not be pleas'd, they think, with any Sacrifice, but what is offer'd by Love.

And to this sad Purpose some have interpreted, Rev. 21. 8. to belong to them, D where

where the fearful are joined together with the most abominable, who shall have their part in the Lake which burneth with Fire and Brimstone.

To cure the deprav'd and unhappie Notions of such as these, it may be argued; That 'tis plain from Scripture, that the first Beginnings of, or Movements towards an Holy Life, are usually owing to the Passion of Fear. * That to this, both our Saviour and his Apostles do all along address themselves in their earnest Intreaties of Mankind, to turn from the ways of Sin to God. Fear him, saith our Saviour, who is able to destroy both Soul and Body in Hell. St. Matth. 10. 28. So 6. & 14. And St. Mark. 16. 16. And to this purpose, saith the Apostle, Work out your Salvation with Fear and Trembling, Phil. 2. 12. And 2 Cor. 5. 10. Knowing the Terrors of the Lord, saith he, we persuade Men. And in most of the Scripture Proofs we shall find the chief Argument of Religion to be urg'd from a fear of Punishment for the neglect thereof: So that to be dejected, and render our Lives comfortless upon this Account, were the most unreasonable Extravagance; since this were to suppose, that God hath implanted the Passion of Fear in us in vain; or, what is worse, only to vex and torment us ; and that our Saviour and his Apostles, persuading us to be religious from the Terrors of the Lord, had deceiv'd and misled us.

And as for that Text, Rev. 21. 8. The fearful and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the Lake which burneth with Fire and Brimstone, &c. It is plain, that by the fearful in this place is meant, either such as refuse to embrace the Christian Religion, or having embrac'd it, are afraid to continue stedfast to the end, on account of the Cross ; and therefore cannot be suppos'd to have any Reference to those who are working out their Salvation with Fear and Trembling, according to the Direction of the Gospel. Not but that we are to intermix with this Fear an entire Love and Affection to God, to the utmost of our Powers, from innumerable Arguments and Motives thereto, which are obvious to all.

3. Some very pious, but unhappy Persons, are grievously tormented with wicked and blasphemous Thoughts, so as to fall under the greatest Agonies of Mind ; and often to be so near Distraction, as to chuse Death rather than Life.

40 The Manner of Visiting the Sick.

For the Relief and Comfort of these, the Minister should suggest to them, * That such horrid and frightful Thoughts are either occasion'd through Melancholy prevailing over their Spirits, and disordering the Frame of their Minds; or else from the Malice of the Devil, and the Spirits of Darkness, who do all they can to shake our Faith, and to embitter the Christian Life.

If to the former we ascribe such horrid Thoughts, they may be comforted upon Assurance, that they will not be imputed to them as their Sin, any more than a Fever or any bodily Distemper will, which they did not willingly procure, and which they have tried all Means to get rid of.

If to the latter, they may be encouraged rather to rejoice, in that nothing is a greater sign of their being high in the Favour of God, than when they are under the most violent Temptations of the Devil. My Brethren, count it all Joy, saith St. James, when ye fall into divers Temptations, ch. 1. 2. To the Effect, they may be taught to consider, * That we wrestle not (only) against Flesh and Blood, but against Principalities, against Powers, against the Rulers of the Darkness of this World, against Spiritual Wickedness, or wicked Spirits, in high places,
Ephes-

Ephes. 9. 12. * That therefore the way to Heaven is justly said to be by the Gates of Hell. * That the same Afflictions are accomplish'd in their Brethren which are in the World, who in various Kinds are tempted of the Tempter, 1 Pet. 5, 8. * That He desired to have St. Peter to sift him as Wheat, St. Luke 22. 31. * That our Saviour himself was tempted by him, and the best of Men have always been most obnoxious to his Malice ; and that to live in carnal Security, without any Molestations from him, is the most dangerous State. * That the being so much concern'd and afflicted at such evil Thoughts, is a certain Argument of a good Disposition, since the Wicked and Prophane are rather pleased than tormented with them.

Such kind of Arguments are the most proper to be offer'd to such unhappy Persons. But in case their Faith and Hope be totally assaulted and overcome by the Devil, and they fall into direct Despair, it will be necessary then to endeavour the Cure of so great an Evil and Temptation, by the Addition of the following Exercise.

An Exercise against Despair.

Despair assents as firmly and strongly as Faith it self. But because it is a violent Sin, and a great Temptation of the Devil ; it is certain, that those who are fallen under it, notwithstanding their deplorable Assurance, have more Reason to condemn their Despair, than to condemn themselves ; because it is so great a Dishonour to God, and will inevitably bring that Ruin along with it which they apprehend, unless they take Care to prevent it in time. For as the hypochondriacal Person, who fancied himself dead, made his Dream true when he starv'd himself, because dead People eat not, so despairing Sinners lose God's Mercies by refusing to use and believe them.

To Persons therefore, under so sad, as well as dangerous a Condition, let the most seasonable Advice, and all the most comfortable Dispensations of the Gospel be administred. To the former Considerations let the following be added ;

That God is not willing that any should perish, but desirous that all should come to his Glory. * That for this end we were created. * That he is so far from being extream to mark what is done amiss, that he will

The Manner of Visiting the Sick.

will not refuse the returning Prodigal, nor reject the worst of Criminals, tho' their Sins be as red as Scarlet, upon their sincere Repentance. * That the Thief upon the Cross is a demonstrable Proof of this, and a standing Example to prevent the greatest Sinner from Despair. * That if God is so merciful and condescending to the vilest Transgressors, much rather may we hope to be pardon'd for our Weakness and Infirmities. For he knoweth whereof we are made, he remembreth that we are but Dust. Nay, he hath assured us, that he will not break the bruised Reed, nor quench the smoking Flax. * That all Sins should be forgiven the Sons of Men, except one, which is the Sin against the Holy Ghost, the Sin unto Death, as St. John calls it, for which we are not bound to pray ; for all others we are. And 'tis certain, that no Man commits a Sin against the Holy Ghost, if he be afraid he hath, or desires that he had not ; for such Penitential Passions are against the very Nature and Definition of that Sin. * That altho' Forgiveness of Sins is consign'd to us in Baptism, and Baptism is but once, yet Forgiveness of Sins being the special Grace of the Gospel, it is secured to us for our Life, and ebbs and flows according as we discompose or renew the Performance of our baptismal Vow ; therefore 'tis certain, that no Man ought to despair of Pardon, but he who hath voluntarily renounced his Baptism, or willingly estranged himself from that Covenant. * That if it were not so, then all Preaching and Prayers were in vain, and all the Conditions of the Gospel invalid, and there could be no such thing as Repentance, nor indeed scarce a Possibility of any one's being sav'd, if all were to be concluded in a State of Damnation who had committed Sin after Baptism.

To have any Fears therefore upon this account, were the most extravagant Madness. For Christ died for Sinners, and God hath comprehended all under Sin, that thro' him, he might have mercy upon all, Rom. 11. 32. And it was concerning baptized Christians that St. John said, If any Man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, and he is the Propitiation for our Sins : And concerning lapsed Christians, St. Paul gave Instruction, that if any Man be overtaken in a Fault, ye which are spiritual restore such a Man in the Spirit of Meekness, considering lest ye also be tempted. The Corinthian Christian committed Incest, and was pardon'd : And Simon Magus, after he was baptiz'd, offer'd to commit his own Sin of Simony,

The Manner of Visiting the Sick. 45

Simony, and yet Peter bid him pray for Pardon : And St. James tells us, that, if the Sick Man sends for the Elders of the Church, and they pray over him, and he confess his Sins, they shall be forgiven him.

* That even in the Case of very great Sins, and great Judgments inflicted upon Sinners, wise and good Men have declared their Sense to be, that God spent all his Anger, and made it expire in that temporal Punishment ; and so it was supposed to have been done in the Case of Ananias, &c. * That nothing can be more absurd, than to think, that so great and good a God, who is so desirous of saving all, as appears by his Word, by his sending his Son, by his Oaths and Promises, by his very Nature and daily overtures of Mercy, should condemn any without the greatest Provocations of his Majesty, and Perseverance in them.

Upon the Strength of these Arguments, the despairing Person may be further taught to argue thus with himself.

I consider that the Ground of my Trouble is my Sin, and were it not for that, I should have no Reason to be troubled : But since the whole World lieth in Wickedness, and since there cannot be a greater Demonstration of a Man's Abhorrence of Sin, than

to be so deeply affected with Sorrow for it ; I therefore will erect my Head with a holy Hope, and think that God will also be merciful to me a Sinner, as he is to the rest of Mankind. I know that the Mercies of God are Infinite : That he sent his Son into the World on purpose to redeem such as my self ; and that he hath promised over and over, to give to them that ask, and to be found of them that seek him ; and therefore I will not distrust his Godness, nor look upon the great God of Heaven and Earth to be worse than his Word. Indeed, if from my self I were to derive my Title to Heaven, then my Sins were a just Argument of Despair : But now that they bring me to Christ, that they drive me to an Appeal to God's Mercy, and to take Sanctuary in the Cross, certainly they ought not, they cannot infer a just Cause of Despair. I am sure it is a stranger thing, that God should come down from Heaven, and take upon him our Nature, and live and die in the most ignominious State of it, than that a sinful Man, washed by the Blood of Christ, and his own Tears and Humiliation, should be admitted to Pardon, and made Partaker of the Kingdom of Heaven : And it were stranger yet, that God should do so much for Man, and that a Man that desires, that labours after it to the utmost of his Power, that sends up strong Cries and Prayers, and is still within the Covenant of Grace, should inevitably miss that End for which God did and suffer'd so much.

'Tis certain, that of all the Attributes that belong to God, there is none more essential to his Nature, and which he takes more delight in than his Mercy ; and 'tis as certain also, there must be proper Objects for this boundless and immense Attribute of God ; and the most proper, if not only Objects of Mercy in the Creation, are the Children of Men ; and of Men, surely those who are most grieved and wearied with the Burden of their Sins. I therefore, who am as pitiful an Object of Mercy as any, will cheerfully hope, that God will both forgive me here, and give me the Blessing of eternal Life hereafter. For I know that eternal Life is purely the Gift of God, and therefore have less Reason (still) to despair. For if my Sins were fewer, and my Disproportions towards such a Glory were less, yet still I could not receive it, but as a free Gift and Donation of God, and so I may now ; and it is not an Expectation beyond the Hopes of Possibility, to look and wait for such a Gift at the Hands of the God of Mercy. The best of Men deserve it not, and I, who am the worst, may have it given me. I know that I have sinned grievously and frequently against my heavenly Father, but I have repented, I have begg'd Pardon, I have confess'd and forsaken my Sins, and done all that is possible for me to make Atone-ment. I cannot undo what is done, and I perish if there be no such thing as a Remedy, or Remission of Sins. But then I know my Religion must perish together with my Hope, and the Word of God it self must fail as well as I. But I cannot, I dare not entertain such a Thought. I firmly believe that most encouraging Article of Faith, The Remission of Sins; and since I do that, which all good Men call Repentance, I will also humbly hope for a Remission of mine, and a joyful Resurrection.
the

I know that the Devil is continually lying in wait to trapan and devour the Souls of Men; (for we are not ignorant of his Devices) wherefore I will fortifie my Spirits, and redouble my Guard, and call upon my God to enable me to resist all the fiery Darts which he now so maliciously and furiously shoots against me.

Or perhaps this exceeding Dejection, or Malady of Mind, may arise from the Dis-temper stemper and Weakness of my Body : Or at most, I hope, 'tis only a Disease of Judgment ; not an intolerable Condition I am fallen into : And since I have heard of a great many others who have been in the same Condition with my self, and yet recover'd, I will also take courage to hope that God will relieve me in his good Time, and not leave my Soul for ever in this Hell of deprav'd Fancy, and wicked Imagination. In fine, I'll raise up my dejected Spirits, and cast all my Care upon God, and depend upon him for the Event, which I am sure will be just ; and I cannot but think, from the same Reason, full of Mercy. However, now I will use all the spiritual Arts of Reason and Religion, to make me more and more to love God ; that if I miscarry, Charity also shall fail, and something that loves God shall perish, and be damn'd ; which if it be impossible (as I am sure it is) then I may have just reason to hope I shall do well.

These Considerations may be of Service to bind up the broken-hearted, and to strengthen the bruised Reed of a good Man's Spirit, in so great and terrible a Dejection. But as Cases of this nature are very rare, so the Arguments here made use of are rarely to be insisted upon ; and never, but to well-dispos'd Persons, or reformed Penitents, or to such as, in the general Course of their Life, have lived pretty strict and conformable to the Rules of Religion. For if the Man be a vicious Person, and hath gone on in a continued Course of Sin, to the time of his Sicknes, these Considerations are not proper. Let him enquire into the Words of the first Disciples after Pentecost, Men and Brethren, what shall we do to be saved? And if he can but entertain so much Hope, as to enable him to do as much of his Duty as he can for the present, it is all that can be provided for him. And the Minister must be infinitely careful, that he does not go about to comfort vicious Persons with the Comfort of God's Elect, lest he prostitute holy Things, and encourage Vice, and render his Discourses deceitful: And the Man sadly finds them to be so, when he descends into the Regions of Darkness.

But because very few are tempted with too great Fears of miscarrying; but the generality, even of the most profligate sort, are rather inclin'd to unwarrantable Assurances of their future Salvation, it will highly concern the Ministers to prevent in time so great and reigning an Imposition of the Devil.

Where-

Wherefore to the former Considerations to awaken the careless Sinner, and a stupid Conscience, the following may be added, upon Occasion, to check the over-weening Thoughts of the Presumptuous.

S E C T. V.

Considerations against Presumption.

AN D here, Let the bold and Arrogant Sinner further know, * That a Man cannot think too meanly of himself, but very easily he may run into the contrary Extreme. * That the Growths in Grace are long, difficult, uncertain, often interrupted, consisting of great Variety, and almost innumeral Parts and Distinctions, which a careless Person can never discover. * That the more a Man presumes, the greater Reason he hath to fear, because the Confidence of such Men is generally like that of Children and young People, which have no other Reason, but that they understand not the Dangers and Follies of their Self-conceits. * That the Heart of Man is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; deceiving it self, and deceiving others in innumerable Instances,

stances; and being often in the Gall of Bitterness, when the Man appears with the fairest out-side to the World. * That 'tis certain, all have sinned and come short of the Glory of God; but not so certain, that any ones Repentance is real and effective to Salvation. * That we know not whether the Time of Repentance, or the Day of Grace be past; or if it be not, what Measures of Obedience and Degrees of Perfection, or what Trials and Sufferings are expected of us, to make our Calling and Election sure. * That Virtue and Vice are oftentimes so near Neighbours, that we pass into each others Borders without Observation, and think we do Justice, when we are Cruel; or call our selves Liberal, when we are loose and foolish in our Expences, &c. * That it is not easie to distinguish between the Virtues of Nature, and the Virtues of Choice; but oftentimes a Man shall expect the Reward of Temperance, when 'tis against his Nature to be drunk; and think himself chaste and reserved by abstaining from the Marriage-bed, when 'tis only the Effects of a morose Disposition, or else out of some temporal End or other, &c. * That the Devil hath ten thousand ways of leading us into Temptation by the most sly and imperimperceptible Means ; and that no Man can tell how oft he offendeth ; insomuch as if we have liv'd never so strict a Life, we have Reason to fear, that our Accounts may swell beyond the Hopes of Pardon, by the number of our Petty Sins and Infirmities, which all are too apt to indulge themselves in : For an Army of Flies and Vermin may destroy all the Hopes of the Harvest, as well as an Army of Soldiers ; and a Man may be drown'd as soon by a Bag of Sand about his Neck as a Milstone.

* That the Self-accusing Publican was justify'd, rather than the self-confident Pharisee. * That if Adam in Paradise, David in his House, Solomon in the Temple, Peter in the Family of Christ, Judas among the twelve Apostles, and Nicholas among the Deacons, and if the Angels in Heaven it self, did fall so grossly and foully, then we have all the Reason in the World not to be high-mind, but to fear ; and when we are most confident of our selves, to take heed lest we fall ; there being nothing so likely to occasion it, as Pride and great Opinions of our selves, which ruin'd the Angels, which God resists, which all Men despise, and which betray us into Carelessness, and a wretchless, undiscerning, and unwary Spirit.

These are the main parts of Ecclesiastical Duties and Offices in the Visitation of the Sick, which being severally perform'd, as occasion requires, it remains only, that the Minister pray over the Sick, and remind him to do good Actions, as he is capable of; to call upon God for Pardon; to put his whole trust in him; to be patient and resign'd; and even, to renounce every ill Thought or Word, or undecent Action, which the Violence of his Sicknes may have caused in him; to beg of God to give him his holy Spirit, to guide him in his Agony, and to send his holy Angels to guard him in his Passage.

Whatsoever is besides this, concerns the Standers by, that they do all in their respective Offices diligently and temperately: That they join in Prayer with the Minister with much Charity and Devotion: That they make no Outcries or Exclamation in the Departure of the Soul; nor any positive Judgment concerning the dying Man; by his dying quietly or violently, with great Fears or a cheerful Confidence, with Sense or without; like a Lamb or like a Lion, with Convulsions and terrible Agonies, or like the silent and well-spent Flame of an expiring Taper. For these may happen severally, according

Visitation of the Sick.

¶ When any Person is Sick, Notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish, who coming into the sick Person's House, shall say,

PEace be to this House, and to all that dwell in it.

¶ When he cometh into the sick Man's Presence, he shall say kneeling down,

Remember not Lord our Iniquities, nor the Iniquities of our Fore-fathers. Spare us, good Lord, spare thy People, whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious Blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

Answe. Spare us good Lord.

Then the Minister shall say,

Let us pray.

Lord, have Mercy upon us.

Christ have Mercy upon us.

Lord have Mercy upon us.

OUR Father, which art in Heaven, hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this Day our daily Bread. And forgive us our Trespases, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into Temptation; but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Minist. O Lord save thy Servant;

Answe. Which putteth his Trust in thee.

Min. Send him Help from thy Holy Place.

Answe. And evermore mightily defend him.

Min. Let the Enemy have no Advantage of him.

Ans. Nor the wicked approach to hurt him.

Min. Be unto him, O Lord, a strong Tower.

Ans. From the Face of his Enemy.

Min. O Lord, hear our Prayers.

Ans. And let our Cry come unto thee.

Minister.

O Lord look down from Heaven, behold, visit, and relieve this thy Servant. Look upon him with the Eyes of thy Mercy;

Mercy ; give him Comfort and sure Confidence in thee ; defend him from the Danger of the Enemy, and keep him in perpetual Peace and Safety, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hear us, almighty and most merciful God and Saviour ; extend thy accustomed Goodness to this thy Servant, who is grieved with Sicknes. Sanctifie, we beseech thee, this thy fatherly Correction to him ; that the Sense of his Weakness may add Strength to his Faith, and seriousness to his Repentance. That if it shall be thy good Pleasure to restore him to his former Health, he may lead the residue of his Life in thy fear, and to thy Glory : or else give him Grace so to take thy Visitation, that after this painful Life is ended, he may dwell with thee in Life everlasting, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister exhort the sick Person after this Form, or other like.

Dearly beloved, know this, that almighty God is the Lord of Life and Death, and of all Things to them pertaining ; as Youth, Strength, Health, Age, Weakness and Sicknes. Wherefore, whatsoever your Sicknes is, know you certainly, that it is God's Visitation. And for what Cause soever this Sicknes is sent unto you ;

Then the Minister shall say,

Let us pray.

Christ have Mercy upon us.

Lord have Mercy upon us.

OUR Father, which art in Heaven, hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this Day our daily Bread. And forgive us our Trespases, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into Temptation; but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Minist. O Lord save thy Servant;

Ans. Nor the wicked approach to hurt him.

Min. Be unto him, O Lord, a strong Tower.

Ans. From the Face of his Enemy.

Min. O Lord, hear our Prayers.

Ans. And let our Cry come unto thee.

Minister.

O Lord look down from Heaven, behold, visit, and relieve this thy Servant. Look upon him with the Eyes of thy Mercy;

Mercy ; give him Comfort and sure Confidence in thee ; defend him from the Danger of the Enemy, and keep him in perpetual Peace and Safety, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hear us, almighty and most merciful God and Saviour ; extend thy accustomed Goodness to this thy Servant, who is grieved with Sicknes. Sanctifie, we beseech thee, this thy fatherly Correction to him ; that the Sense of his Weakness may add Strength to his Faith, and seriousness to his Repentance. That if it shall be thy good Pleasure to restore him to his former Health, he may lead the residue of his Life in thy fear, and to thy Glory : or else give him Grace so to take thy Visitation, that after this painful Life is ended, he may dwell with thee in Life everlasting, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister exhort the sick Person after this Form, or other like.

Dearly beloved, know this, that almighty God is the Lord of Life and Death, and of all Things to them pertaining ; as Youth, Strength, Health, Age, Weakness and Sicknes. Wherefore, whatsoever your Sicknes is, know you certainly, that it is God's Visitation. And for what Cause soever this Sicknes is sent unto you ;

whether it be to try your Patience, for the Example of others, and that your Faith may be found in the Day of the Lord laudable, glorious and honourable, to the Increase of Glory and endless Felicity: Or else it be sent unto you to correct and amend in you whatsoever doth offend the Eyes of your heavenly Father; Know you certainly, that if you truly repent you of your Sins, and bear your Sicknes patiently, trusting in God's Mercy for his dear Son Jesus Christ his sake, and render unto him humble Thanks for his fatherly Visitation, submitting your self wholly unto his Will, it shall turn to your Profit, and help you forward in the right way that leadeth unto everlasting Life.

¶ If the Person visited be very sick, then the Curate may end his Exhortation in this Place, or else proceed.

TAke therefore in good part the Chastisement of the Lord: For (as St. Paul saith in the twelfth Chapter to the Hebrewes) whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every Son whom he receiveth. If you endure Chastning, God dealeth with you as with Sons; for what Son is he whom the Father chasteneth not? But if ye be without Chastisement, whereof all are Partakers, then are ye Bastards, and not Sons. Furthermore, we have had Fa-

Fathers of our Flesh, which corrected us, and we gave them Reverence ; shall we not much rather be in Subjection unto the Father of Spirits, and live ? For they verily, for a few Days chastned us after their own Pleasure ; but he for our Profit, that we might be Partakers of his Holiness. These Words (good Brother) are written in holy Scriptures for our Comfort and Instruction, that we should patiently and with Thanksgiving bear our heavenly Father's Correction, whensoever, by any manner of Adversity, it shall please his gracious Goodness to visit us. And there should be no greater Comfort to Christian Persons, than to be made like unto Christ, by suffering patiently Adversities, Troubles and Sickneses. For he himself went not up to Joy, but first he suffer'd Pain : He enter'd not into his Glory before he was crucified. So truly our Way to eternal Joy, is to suffer here with Christ ; and our Door to enter into eternal Life, is gladly to die with Christ, that we may rise again from Death, and dwell with him in everlasting Life. Now therefore, taking your Sicknes, which is thus profitable for you, patiently, I exhort you in the Name of God to remember the Profession which you made unto God in your Baptism. And forasmuch as after this Life,

Life there is an Account to be given unto the righteous Judge, by whom all must be judged without Respect of Persons ; I require you to examine your self, and your Estate, both towards God and Man ; so that accusing and condemning your self, and your own Faults, you may find Mercy at your heavenly Father's Hand, for Christ's sake, and not be accused and condemn'd in that fearful Judgment. Therefore I shall rehearse to you the Articles of our Faith, that you may know whether you believe as a Christian Man should, or no.

DOst thou believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth ?

And in Jesus Christ his only begotten Son our Lord ? and that he was conceived by the Holy Ghost ; born of the Virgin Mary ; that he suffer'd under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried ; that he went down into Hell, and also did rise again the third Day ; that he ascended into Heaven, and sitteth at the right Hand of God, the Father Almighty, and from thence shall come again at the end of the World, to judge the Quick and the Dead ?

And

And dost thou believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy Catholick Church; the Communion of Saints; the Remission of Sins; the Resurrection of the Flesh; and everlasting Life after Death?

The Sick Person shall answer,
All this I stedfastly believe.

- ¶ Then shall the Minister examine whether he repent him truly of his Sins, and be in Charity with all the World; exhorting him to forgive, from the bottom of his Heart, all Persons that have offended him, and if he have offended any other, to ask 'em Forgiveness; and where he hath done Injury or Wrong to any Man, that he make amends to the utmost of his Power. And if he hath not before disposed of his Goods, let him then be admonished to make his Will, and to declare his Debts, what he oweth, and what is owing unto him; for the better discharging of his Conscience, and the Quietness of his Executors. But Men should often be put in remembrance to take order for settling of their temporal Estates, whilst they are in Health.
- ¶ These Words, before rehearsed, may be said before the Minister begin his Prayer, as he shall see Cause.
- ¶ The Minister should not omit earnestly to move such sick Persons as are of Ability, to be liberal to the Poor.
- ¶ Here shall the sick Person be moved to make a special Confession of his Sins, if he feel his Conscience troubled with any weighty Matter. After which Confession, the Priest shall absolve him (if he humbly and heartily desire it) after this sort.

OUR Lord Jesus Christ, who hath left Power to his Church to absolve all Sinners who truly repent, and believe in him, him, of his great Mercy forgive thee thine Offences ; and by his Authority committed to me, I absolve thee from all thy Sins, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ And then the Priest shall say the Collect following.

Let us pray.

O Most merciful God, who according to the Multitude of thy Mercies dost so put away the Sins of those who truly repent, that thou remembrest them no more ; open thine Eye of Mercy upon this thy Servant, who most earnestly desireth Pardon and Forgiveness. Renew in him (most loving Father) whatsoever hath been decay'd by the Fraud and Malice of the Devil, or by his own carnal Will and Frailness ; preserve and continue this sick Member in the Unity of the Church ; consider his Contrition, accept his Tears, assuage his Pain, as shall seem to thee most expedient for him. And forasmuch as he putteth his full Trust only in thy Mercy, impute not unto him his former Sins, but strengthen him with thy blessed Spirit ; and when thou art pleased to take him hence, take him unto thy Favour, through the Merits of thy most dearly-beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then

¶ Then shall the Minister say this Psalm.

In te, Domine speravi, Psal. 71.

IN thee, O Lord, have I put my Trust, let me never be put to Confusion: But rid me, and deliver me in thy Righteousness; incline thine Ear unto me, and save me.

Be thou a strong Hold, whereunto I may alway resort: Thou hast promised to help me, for thou art my House of Defence, and my Castle.

Deliver me, O my God, out of the Hand of the ungodly; out of the Hand of the unrighteous and cruel Man.

For thou, O Lord, art the thing that I long for: Thou art my Hope, even from my Youth.

Through thee have I been holden up ever since I was born: Thou art he that took me out of my Mother's Womb; my Praise shall always be of thee.

I am become as it were a Monster to many: But my sure Trust is in thee.

O let my Mouth be filled with thy Praise;
that I may sing of thy Glory and Honour
all the Day long.

Cast me not away in the Time of Age:
For sake me not when my Strength faileth me.

For

For mine Enemies speak against me, and they that lay wait for my Soul take their Counsel together, saying, God hath forsaken him, persecute him, and take him, for there is none to deliver him.

Go not far from me, O God: my God, haste thee to help me.

Let them be confounded and perish, that are against my Soul: Let them be covered with shame and Dishonour, that seek to do me evil.

As for me, I will patiently abide alway: and will praise thee more and more.

My Mouth shall daily speak of thy Righteousness and Salvation: For I know no end thereof.

I will go forth in the Strength of the Lord God: And will make mention of thy Righteousness only.

Thou, O God, hast taught me from my Youth up until now: Therefore will I tell of thy wondrous Works.

For sake me not, O God, in mine old Age, when I am grey-headed, until I have shewed thy Strength unto this Generation, and thy Power to all them that are yet for to come.

Thy Righteousness, O God, is very high, and great Things are they that thou hast done: O God, who is like unto thee?

Glory

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning is now, and ever shall be : World without end. Amen.

¶ Adding this,

O Saviour of the World, who by thy Cross and precious Blood hast redeemed us, save us and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

THE Almighty Lord, who is a most strong Tower to all them that put their Trust in him, to whom all things in Heaven, in Earth, and under the Earth do bow and obey, be now, and evermore thy Defence, and make thee know and feel, that there is none other Name under Heaven given to Man, in whom, and thro' whom thou mayest receive Health and Salvation, but only the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ And after that shall say,

UNto God's gracious Mercy and Protection we commit thee. The Lord bless thee, and keep thee. The Lord make his Face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee. The Lord lift up his Countenance upon thee, and give thee
Peace, both now and evermore. Amen.

The

Communion of the Sick.

IF Orasmuch as all mortal Men be subject to many sudden Perils, Diseases and Sickneses, and ever uncertain what Time they shall depart out of this Life; therefore, to the intent they may be always in readiness to die, whensoever it shall please Almighty God to call them, the Curates shall diligently from Time to Time (but especially in Time of Pestilence, or other infectious Sicknesse) exhort their Parishioners to the often receiving of the Holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ, when it shall be publicly administred in the Church; that so doing they may in case of sudden Visitation, have the less Cause to be disquieted for lack of the same. But if the Sick Person be not able to come to the Church, and yet is desirous to receive the Communion in his House; then he must give timely Notice to the Curate, signifying also how many there are to communicate with him, (which shall be three, or two at the least) and having a convenient Place in the Sick Man's House, with all Things necessary so prepared, that the Curate may reverently minister, he shall there celebrate the holy Communion, beginning with the Collect, Epistle and Gospel here following.

The Collect.

ALmighty and everlasting God, Maker of Mankind, who dost correct those whom thou dost love, and chastise every one whom thou dost receive; We beseech thee to have Mercy upon this thy Servant visited with thine hand, and to grant that he may take his Sicknesse patiently, and recover cover his bodily Health (if it be thy gracious Will) and whenever his Soul shall depart from the Body, it may be without Spot presented unto thee, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle, Heb. 12. 5.

MY Son, despise not thou the Chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him. For whom the Lord loveth he chastneth; and scourgeth every Son whom he receiveth.

The Gospel, St. John 5. 24.

VErily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my Word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting Life, and shall not come into Condemnation; but is passed from Death unto Life.

- ¶ After which, the Priest shall proceed according to the Form prescribed for the Holy Communion, beginning at these Words, [Ye that do truly]
- ¶ At the Time of their Distribution of the holy Sacrament, the Priest shall first receive the Communion himself, and after minister unto them that are appointed to communicate with the sick, and last of all to the sick Person.
- ¶ But if a Man, either by reason of Extremity of Sicknes, or for want of Warning in due Time to the Curate, or for lack of Company to receive with him, or by any other just Impediment, do not receive the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood, the Curate shall instruct him, that if he do truly repent him of his Sins, and stedfastly believe that Jesus Christ hath suffer'd Death upon the Cross for him, and shed his Blood for his Redemption, earnestly remembering the Benefits he hath thereby, and giving him hearty Thanks therefore, he doth eat and drink the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ profitably to his Soul's Health, although he do not receive the Sacrament with his Mouth.

¶ When the sick Person is visited, and receiveth the holy Communion all at one time, then the Priest, for more expedition, shall cut off the Form of the Visitation at the Psalm [In thee, O Lord, have I put my Trust] and go strait to the Communion.

¶ In the Time of the Plague, Sweat, or such other like contagious Times of Sicknes or Diseases, when none of the Parish or Neighbours can be gotten to communicate with the Sick, in their Houses, for fear of the Infection, upon special Request of the Deceased, the Minister only may communicate with him.

¶ At the Time of the Celebration of the Communion, the Communicants being conveniently plac'd for the receiving of the holy Sacrament, the Priest shall say this Exhortation.

DEarly beloved in the Lord, ye that mind to come to the holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ, must consider how St. Paul exhorteth all Persons diligently to try and examine themselves, before they presume to eat of that Bread, and drink of that Cup. For as the Benefit is great, if with a true penitent Heart, and lively Faith, we receive that holy Sacrament, (for then we spiritually eat the Flesh of Christ, and Drink his Blood; then we dwell in Christ, and Christ in us; we are one with Christ, and Christ with us:) so is the Danger great, if we receive the same unworthily. For then we are guilty of the Body and Blood of of Christ our Saviour; we eat and drink our own Damnation, not considering the Lord's Body; we kindle God's Wrath against us; we provoke him to plague us with divers Diseases, and sundry kinds of Death. Judge therefore your selves, Brethren, that ye be not judged of the Lord; repent ye truly for your Sins past; have a lively and stedfast Faith in Christ our Saviour; amend your Lives, and be in perfect Charity with all Men; so shall ye be meet Partakers of these holy Mysteries. And above all things ye must give most humble and hearty Thanks to God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, for the Redemption of the World by the Death and Passion of our Saviour Christ, both God and Man, who did humble himself even to the Death upon the Cross, for us miserable Sinners, who lay in Darkness, and the shadow of Death, that he might make us the Children of God, and exalt us to everlasting Life. And to the end that we should always remember the exceeding great Love of our Master and only Saviour Jesus Christ, thus dying for us, and the innumerable Benefits which by his precious Blood-shedding he hath obtained to us, he hath instituted and ordained holy Mysteries, as Pledges of his Love, and for a continual Remembrance of his Death, to our great and endless Comfort. To him, therefore, with the Father, and the holy Ghost, let us give (as we are most bounden) continual Thanks, submitting our selves wholly to his holy Will and Pleasure, and studying to serve him in true Holiness and Righteousness all the Days of our Life. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest say to them that come to receive the holy Communion.

YE that do truly and earnestly repent you of your Sins, and are in Love and Charity with your Neighbours, and intend to lead a new Life, following the Commandments of God, and walking from hence in his holy Ways ; draw near with Faith, and take this holy Sacrament to your Comfort ; and make your humble Confession to Almighty God, meekly kneeling upon your knees.

¶ Then shall this general Confession be made, in the Name of all those that are minded to receive the holy Communion, by one of the Ministers, both he and all the People kneeling humbly upon their Knees, and saying,

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all Things, Judge of all Men ; we acknowledge and bewail, bewail our manifold Sins and Wickedness, which we from Time to Time most grievously have committed, by Thought, Word and Deed, against thy divine Majesty, provoking most justly thy Wrath and Indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, and are heartily sorry for these our Misdoings; the Remembrance of them is grievous unto us; the burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, have Mercy upon us, most merciful Father; for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us all that is past, and grant we may ever hereafter serve and please thee in Newness of Life, to the Honour and Glory of thy Name, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest (or the Bishop being present) stand up, and turning himself to the People, pronounce this Absolution.

ALmighty God our heavenly Father, who of thy Great Mercy hath promised Forgiveness of Sins, to all them that with hearty Repentance and true Faith turn unto him; have Mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your Sins, confirm and strengthen you in all Goodness, and bring you to everlasting Life, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

Hear what comfortable Words our Saviour Christ faith unto all that truly turn to him.

COME unto me, all that travel and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you, St. Matth. 11. 28.

So God loved the World, that he gave his only begotten Son, to the end that all that believe in him should not perish, but have everlasting Life, St. John 3. 15.

Here also what S. Paul faith,

This is a true Saying, and worthy of all Men to be received, that Jesus Christ came into the World to save Sinners, 1 Tim. 1. 15.

Hear also what Saint John faith.

If any Man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous, and he is the Propitiation for our Sins, 1 St. John 2. 1.

After which the Priest shall proceed, saying,

Lift up your Hearts.

Answe. We lift them up unto the Lord.

Priest. Let us give Thanks unto our Lord God.

Answe. It is meet and right so to do.

¶ Then

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

IT is very meet, right, and our bounden Duty, that we should at all Times and in all Places give Thanks unto thee, O Lord, * Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God.

* These Words [Holy Father] must be omitted on Trinity-Sunday.

¶ Here shall follow the proper Preface, according to the Time, if there be any specially appointed; or else immediately shall follow, Therefore with Angels and Arch-angels, and with all the Company of Heaven, we laud and magnifie thy glorious Name, evermore praising thee, and saying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts, Heaven and Earth are full of thy Glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord most high. Amen.

¶ Proper Prefaces.

¶ Upon Christmas-Day, and seven Days after,

BEcause thou didst give Jesus Christ, thine only Son, to be born as at this Time for us, who by the Operation of the Holy Ghost was made very Man, of the Substance of the Virgin Mary his Mother, and that without Spot of Sin, to make us clean us from all Sin. Therefore with Angels, &c.

¶ Upon Easter-Day, and seven Days after,

BUT chiefly are we bound to praise thee for the glorious Resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord: For he is the very Paschal Lamb which was offered for us, and hath taken away the Sins of the World; who by his Death hath destroyed Death, and by his rising to Life again, hath restor'd us to everlasting Life. Therefore, &c.

¶ Upon Ascension-Day, and seven Days after,

THROUGH thy most dearly beloved Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who after his most glorious Resurrection manifestly appeared to all his Apostles, and in their Sight ascended up into Heaven to prepare a place for us; that where he is, thither we might also ascend, and reign with him in Glory. Therefore, &c.

¶ Upon Whitsunday, and six Days after,

THROUGH Jesus Christ our Lord, according to whose most true Promise the Holy Ghost came down as at this Time from Heaven with a sudden great Sound, as it had been a mighty Wind, in the Likeness ness of fiery Tongues, lighting upon the Apostles, to teach them, and to lead them to all Truth, giving them both the Gift of divers Languages, and also Boldness with fervent Zeal constantly to preach the Gospel unto all Nations, whereby we have been brought out of Darkness and Error into the clear Light and true Knowledge of thee, and of thy Son Jesus Christ. Therefore, &c.

¶ Upon the Feast of Trinity only,

WHO art one God, one Lord; not one only Person, but three Persons in one Substance. For that which we believe of the Glory of the Father, the same we believe of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, without any Difference or Inequality. Therefore, &c.

¶ After each of which Prefaces, shall immediately be sung or said,

Therefore with Angels and Arch-angels, and with all the Company of Heaven, we laud and magnifie thy glorious Name, evermore praising thee, and saying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts, Heaven and Earth are full of thy Glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord most high. Amen.

¶ Then

¶ Then shall the Priest, kneeling down at the Lord's Table, say, in the name of all them that shall receive the Communion, this Prayer following :

WE do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own Righteousness, but in thy manifold and great Mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the Crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have Mercy ; Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the Flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his Blood, that our sinful Bodies may be made clean by his Body, and our Souls washed thro' his most precious Blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

¶ When the Priest, standing before the Table, hath so ordered the Bread and Wine, that he may with the more Readiness and Decency break the Bread before the People, and take the Cup into his Hands, he shall say the Prayer of Consecration as followeth.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of thy tender Mercy didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer Death upon the Cross for our Redemption, who made there (by his one Oblation of himself once offered) a full, perfect, and sufficient Sacrifice, Oblation, and Satisfac-on

on for the Sins of the whole World, and did institute, and in his holy Gospel Command us to continue a perpetual Memory of that his precious Death, until his coming again; Hear us, O merciful Father, we most humbly beseech thee, and grant that we receiving these thy Creatures of Bread and Wine, according to thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ's holy Institution, in Remembrance of his Death and Passion, may be Partakers of his most blessed Body and Blood: Who, in the same Night that he was betrayed, (a) took Bread, and when he had given Thanks, (b) he brake it, and gave it to his Disciples, saying, Take, eat, (c) this is my Body, which is given for you, Do this in Remembrance of me. Likewise after Supper (d) he took the Cup, and when he had given Thanks, he gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of this, for this (e) is my Blood of the New Testament which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of Sins: Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me. Amen.

(a) Here the Priest is to take the Paten into his hands.

(b) And here to break the Bread.

(c) And here lay his Hands upon all the Bread.

(d) Here he is to take the Cup into his Hand.

(e) And here to lay his Hand upon every Vessel (being Chalice or Flagon) in which there is any Wine to be consecrated.

¶ Then

¶ Then shall the Minister first receive the Communion in both kinds himself, and then proceed to deliver the same to the Bishops, Priests and Deacons in like manner (if any be present) and after that to the People also in order, into their Hands, all meekly kneeling. And when he delivereth the Bread to any one, he shall say,

THE Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy Body and Soul unto everlasting Life. Take and eat this in Remembrance that Christ died for thee and feed on him in thy Heart by Faith with Thanksgiving.

¶ And the Minister, that delivereth the Cup to any one, shall say,

THE Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy Body and Soul unto everlasting Life. Drink this in Remembrance that Christ's Blood was shed for thee, and be thankful.

¶ If the consecrated Bread or Wine be all spent before all have communicated, the Priest is to consecrate more, according to the Form before prescribed: Beginning at [Our Saviour Christ in the same Night, &c.] for the Blessing of the Bread, and at [Likewise after Supper, &c.] for the Blessing of the Cup.

¶ When all have communicated, the Minister shall return to the Lord's Table, and reverently place upon it what remaineth of the consecrated Elements, covering the same with a fair Linnen Cloth.

¶ Then shall the Priest say the Lord's Prayer, the People repeating after him every Petition.

OUR Father which art in Heaven ;
Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done in Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this Day our daily Bread. And forgive us our Trespases, as we forgive them that trespass against us.
And lead us not into Temptation, but deliver us from Evil. For thine is the Kingdom, the Power, and Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ After shall be said as followeth.

O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy humble Servants entirely desire thy Fatherly Goodness, mercifully to accept this our Sacrifice of Praise and Thanksgiving ; most humbly beseeching thee to grant, that by the Merits and Death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through Faith in his Blood, we and all thy whole Church may obtain remission of our Sins, and all other Benefits of his Passion. And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our Souls and Bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and lively Sacrifice unto thee ; humbly beseeching thee, that all we who are partakers of this holy Communion, may be fulfilled with thy Grace and heavenly Benediction. And although we be unworthy through our manifold Sins to offer unto thee any sacrifice ; yet we beseech thee accept this our bounden Duty and Service ; not weighing our Merits, but pardoning our Offences, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord ; by whom, and with whom, in the Unity of the Holy Ghost, all Honour and Glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, World without end. Amen.

¶ Or this.

ALmighty and everlasting God, we most heartily thank thee, for that thou dost vouchsafe to feed us, who have duly received these holy Mysteries, with the spiritual Food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ ; and dost assure us thereby of thy Favour and Goodness towards us ; and that we are very Members incorporate in the mystical Body of thy Son, which is the blessed Company of all faithful People ; and are also Heirs thro' hope of thy everlasting Kingdom, by the Merits of the most precious Death and Passion of thy dear Son. And we most humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy Grace, that we may continue in that holy Fellowship, and do all such good Works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the

the Holy Ghost, be all Honour and Glory, World without end. Amen.

¶ Then shall be said or sung,

GLory be to God on high, and in Earth Peace, good Will towards Men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorifie thee, we give Thanks to thee for thy great Glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only begotten Son Jesus of the Father, that takest away the Sins of the World, have Mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the Sins of the World, have Mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the Sins of the World, receive our Prayer. Thou that sittest at the right Hand of God the Father, have Mercy upon us.

For thou only art Holy, thou only art
the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the Glory of God the Father. Amen.

For thou only art Holy, thou only art
the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the Glory of God the Father. Amen.

¶ Then

¶ Then the Priest or Bishop (if he be present) shall let them depart with this Blessing.

THE Peace of God, which passeth all Understanding, keep your Hearts and Minds in the Knowledge and Love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, and the Blessing of God Almighty; the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Proper Collects that may be used with any of the Prayers for the Sick.

LET thy Merciful Ears, O Lord, be open to the Prayers of thy humble Servants, and that we may obtain our Petitions, make us to ask such Things as shall please thee, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. +

IN the midst of Life we are in Death; of whom may we seek for Succour but of thee, O Lord, who for our Sins art justly displeased? yet, O Lord God most holy, O Lord most mighty, O holy and most merciful Saviour, deliver us not into the bitter Pains of Eternal Death. Thou knowest, Lord, the Secrets of our Heart, shut not thy merciful Ears to our Prayers; but spare us, Lord most holy, O God most mighty, O holy and merciful Saviour, thou most worthy Judge eternal, suffer us not at the last Hour, for any Pains of Death to fall from thee.

✠ O Merciful God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the Resurrection and the Life, we beseech thee to raise us from the Death of Sin to the Life of Righteousness; that at the general Resurrection in the last Day we may be found acceptable in thy Sight, and may have our perfect Consummation and Bliss, both in Body and Soul, in thy eternal Glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

✠ Grant we beseech thee, Almighty God that we, who for our evil Deeds do worthily deserve to be punish'd, by the Comfort of thy Grace may mercifully be relieved, thro' our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

✠ O Most mighty God, and merciful Father, who hast Compassion upon all Men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, who wouldest not the Death of a Sinner, but that he should rather turn from his Sin and be saved; mercifully forgive us our Trespases; receive and comfort us, who are grieved and wearied with the Burden of our Sins. Thy Property is always to have Mercy, to thee only it appertaineth to forgive Sins. Spare us therefore, fore, good Lord, spare us, whom thou hast redeemed. Enter not into Judgment with thy Servants, who are vile Earth, and miserable Sinners, but so turn thine Anger from us, who meekly acknowledge our Vileness, and truly repent us of our Faults, and so make haste to help us in this World, that we may ever live with thee in the World to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

O God the Creator and Preserver of all Mankind, we humbly beseech thee for all Sorts and Conditions of Men, that thou wouldest be pleased to make thy Ways known unto them, thy saving Health among all Nations; more especially we pray for the good Estate of the Catholick Church, that it may be so guided and govern'd by thy good Spirit, that all who fess and call themselves Christians may be led into the World of Truth, and hold the Faith in Unity of Spirit, in the Bond of Peace and in Righteousness of Life. Finally, we commend to thy Fatherly Goodness, all those that are any Ways afflicted or distressed in Mind, Body or Estate; (especially for him whom our Prayers are desired) that it may please thee to comfort and relieve them according to their several Necessities, giving them Patience under their Sufferings, and a happy Issue out of all their Afflictions, and this we beg for Jesus Christ his sake.

✠ Almighty and everlasting God, who art always more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire or deserve; pour down upon us the abundance of thy Mercy, forgiving us those Things whereof our Conscience is afraid, and giving us those good Things which we are not worthy to ask, but thro' the Merits and Mediation of Jesus Christ our Lord.

✠ O God, merciful Father, that despisest not the sighing of a contrite Heart, nor the desire of such as be sorrowful; mercifully assist our Prayers that we make before thee in all our Troubles and Adversities whensoever they oppress us, and graciously hear us, that those Evils which the Craft and Subtilty of the Devil or Men worketh against us be brought to nought, and by the Providence of thy Goodness they may be dispersed, that we thy Servants being hurt by no persecutions (or Afflictions) may evermore give Thanks unto thee in thy Holy Church, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. We

WE beseech thee, O Father, mercifully to look upon our Infirmities, and for the Glory of thy Name turn from us all those Evils that we most righteously have deserved, and grant that in all our Troubles we may put our whole Trust and Confidence in thy Mercy, and evermore serve thee in Holiness and pureness of Living, to thy Honour and Glory, thro' our only Mediator and Advocate Jesus Christ our Lord.

Almighty and everlasting God, who of thy tender Love to Mankind hast sent thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, to take upon him our Flesh, and to suffer Death upon the Cross, that all Mankind should follow the Example of his great Humility; mercifully grant, that we may both follow the Example of his Patience, and also be made Partakers of his Resurrection, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord.

Almighty God, the Fountain of all Wisdom, who knowest our Necessities before we ask, and our Ignorance in asking, we beseech thee to have Compassion upon our Infirmities, and those Things which for our Unworthiness we dare not,

and for our Blindness we cannot ask, vouchsafe to give us for the Worthiness of thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Good
A general Prayer for the Acceptance of our Devotions for the Sick.

From Bishop
Andrews.

O Lord, it is a great Presumption that one Sinner should dare to commend another to thy Divine Majesty, especially the greater Sinner, the less. And who would not fear to undertake it? But thy Commandment it is, That we should pray for the sick Members of thy Church, and mourn with them that mourn: And thou hast promised that our Prayers thus made, thou wilt receive. And now behold, O Lord, we that are no way meet, but unworthy, utterly unworthy, to ask for ought for our selves, Charity and Compassion so binding us, are enforced to become Suitors to thee for others, even for this thy Servant, now afflicted by thee. To thee we hope; to thee we desire; to thee we entreat and pray, in the most meek and humble Manner, and even from the bottom of our Hearts. O Lord, that which thou mightest justly deny to our Unworthiness, deny not, we beseech thee, to thine own gracious Goodness. O Lord forgive give us our Sins, O Lord forgive us our Sins, our great and grievous Sins, oft and many Times committed, long and many years continued, so that we may be meet to pray for others, and our Prayers be made unto thee in an acceptable Time.

Graciously look upon our Afflictions.
Pitifully behold the Sorrows of our Hearts.

Mercifully forgive the Sins of thy People.

Favourably with Mercy hear our Prayers.

Both now and ever vouchsafe to hear us,
O Christ.

Graciously hear us, O Christ, graciously hear us, O Lord Christ. Amen.

¶ Particular Prayers for the Sick.

From Bishop Patrick. O Most gracious God, who by thy Son Jesus Christ hast knit us all together in one Body, that we should love one another, and if one Member suffers, all the Members should suffer with it; we humbly implore thy tender Mercies towards this thy Servant, of whose afflicted Condition we desire to have a compassionate Sense and Feeling.

Look graciously upon him, O Lord, and visit him with thy Salvation. Vouchsafe him such Consolations from above, as we should desire for our selves, were we in his Estate. Give him a true penitent Heart for all the Offences he hath at any time committed ; together with a lively Faith in thy Son Jesus, who came into the World to save Sinners. Give him the Comfort of a holy Hope, that thou acceptest his Repentance, and faithful Devotion to thee. Support him by this Hope under all his Pain, and enable him patiently to submit to thy Fatherly Correction. Send him help now in time of Need, both for his Soul and for his Body. Bless the Means for his Recovery ; and, if it be thy good Pleasure, restore him speedily to his former Health, together with a serious Resolution in his Heart to serve thee more zealously all his Days.

Or if thou hast otherwise resolved in thy wise Counsels, deliver him from the Fear of Death, assist him in his last Agony, give him an easie and cheerful Passage out of this Life, and send thy holy Angels to conduct him into Rest and Peace with our Lord Jesus, for the same Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

I.

From Bishop
Taylor

ALmighty God, Father of Mercies, the God of Peace and Comfort, of Rest and Pardon! we thy Servants, in Duty to thee, and Charity to our Brother, humbly beg Mercy of thee for him, to descend upon his Body, and his Soul. We come to thee in the Name of Jesus, praying thee to pardon the Sins of this thy Servant, and to put them all upon the Accounts of the Cross, and to bury them in the Grave of him that died for us, that they may never rise up in Judgment against him, nor bring him in the Day of Trial to shame and Confusion of Face. Amen.

II.

GIVE thy Servant, O Lord, Patience in his Sorrows, Comfort in his Sickness, and restore him to Health, if it seem good to thee. And however thou shalt determine concerning him in this Affair, yet make his Repentance perfect, and his Faith strong, and his Hope steadfast, and his Passage safe; that when thou shalt call his Soul from the Prison of the Body, it may enter into the Rest of the Sons of God, and the Bosom of Blessedness, and be with the Holy Jesus. Amen.

III.

O Lord, thou knowest all the Necessities, and all the Infirmities of thy Servant: Fortifie his Soul with spiritual Joys, and perfect Resignation; and take from him all inordinate Affections to this World; and enlarge his Heart with Desires of being with thee, and of Freedom from Sin, and of the Fruition of God. Amen.

IV.

Lord, let not any Pain or Passion discompose the Order of his Thoughts, or his Duty; and lay no more upon thy Servant than thou wilt make him able to bear; and together with the Temptation do thou provide a Way to escape; even by the Mercies of a longer and more holy Life; or by the Mercies of a blessed Death, even as it pleaseth thee, O Lord, so let it be. Amen.

V.

Lord, let the Tenderneſs of his Conscience, and the Spirit of God, call to mind his Sins, that they may be confessed and repented of: And let thy powerful Grace remove from his Soul every Root of Bitterneſs; and in the Union of the holy Jesus, and in the Love of God, and in the the Communion of all the Saints, let his Soul be presented to thee blameless, and entirely pardon'd, and thoroughly washed, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

VI.

O Holy, most gracious Saviour, in whose Hands the Souls of all faithful People are laid up 'till the Day of Recompence, have mercy upon the Soul and Body of this thy Servant, refresh him with the Aids of the Spirit of Grace and Comfort, and supply all his Necessities known only unto thee. Let him dwell in Peace, feeling thy Pardon, supported by thy Goodness, absolved by thy Sentence, and saved by thy Mercy; that whenever his Soul shall go out from the Body, it may be receiv'd by Angels, and preserved from evil Spirits, and laid up in thy Bosom; and that in the Day of thy second coming, his Body may be raised up with Power to behold for ever the Face of God, in the Glories of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A larger Form of Prayer for the Sick.

From Bishop
Patrick.

O Lord, the Father of our Spirits, who givest us Life and Breath, and all Things, and hast not thought a Crown of everlasting Life too much to promise us, we believe that thou wilt not deny us what is needful and fit for us, both for our Souls and our Bodies, in our Passage through this World, to that Honour, Glory and Immortality. In this Confidence, we more particularly recommend this thy sick Servant to thy Infinite and most compassionate Mercy. Settle in his Soul a stedfast Faith, that thou dost not willingly grieve the Children of Men, but intendest good to him, by this thy Fatherly Correction. And now that all other Pleasures and Enjoyments fail him, represent thy self more effectually unto him, as the only Support and Stay of his Hope, and Rock of Salvation. Wherein-soever he hath neglected thee, or committed any Offence against thee, make him deeply sensible of it, and heartily sorrowful for all his Transgressions. And as he earnestly desires Pardon and Forgiveness of thee, so work in him a serious Resolution to live more circumspectly and righteously for the Time to come. Assist him graciously, O Lord, that he may give a Proof of his sincere Intentions hereafter to submit himself in all Things to thy Will, by his patient Submission to thy fatherly Correction now. O that he may so quietly, so meekly, so humbly, and cheerfully resign his Will unto thee, to suffer what thou inflictest, that he may be the more disposed to do readily whatsoever thou commandest. For which End, make him throughly apprehensive of thy Sovereign Power and Authority over all Creatures. Possess him with a great Reverence of thy Wisdom and Justice, with an entire Confidence in thy Goodness and Love, and with a thankful Remembrance of all thy past Mercies to him, that so he may the better endure what thou layest upon him at present, and may ever chuse to follow thy Directions, and submit to thy Orders, and delight to do thy Will, O God.

Bless the Remedies which are used for the restoring him to his former Health, that he may live to perform his Duty with greater Care. Or if thou hast otherwise appointed, accept graciously of his Purposes of Amendment, and dispose him to return back his Spirit willingly unto thee who gavest it; and with great Humility and deep Sense of his own Undeservings, to expect thy Mercy declar'd in Christ Jesus. Fix his Mind stedfastly upon him, who hath led the Way thro' the Grave unto Heaven, that he may not be affrighted with the Approaches of Death, but looking beyond it to that high and holy Place, where where the Lord Jesus is, may rejoyce in Hope of eternal Glory.

And grant that every one of us, in our best Estate of Health, may consider perpetually how frail and weak we are; That so we may not abuse our selves by an intemperate Use of any sensual Pleasures, nor load our Minds with the Cares of this Life, nor spend our Days in a vain pursuit of the Honour and Glory of this World: But may pass all the Time of our sojourning here in Fear, and may live so righteously and soberly in this present World, as becomes those who expect shortly to give an Account to thee, who wilt judge all Men according to their Works. Hear us, O Lord, we most humbly beseech thee, through Christ Jesus our merciful and compassionate High Priest, who sits at thy right Hand, and lives for ever to make Intercession for us. Amen.

Assist us mercifully, O Lord, in these our Supplications and Prayers, and dispose the Way of thy Servants towards the Attainment of everlasting Salvation; that among all the Changes and Chances of this mortal Life, they may ever be defended by thy most gracious and ready Help, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

fil
O Lord, blefs, keep, and defend this thy Servant with thy Heavenly Grace and Benediction, that he may continue thine for ever, and daily increafe in thy Holy Spirit more and more, until he comes to thy everlasting Kingdom.

From Dr.
Hammond.

Let thy mighty Hand, and out-ftretch'd Arm, O Lord, be ever his Defence ; thy Mercy and loving Kindnefs in Jefus Chrift thy dear Son, his Salvation ; thy true and holy Word, his Inftitution ; thy Grace and holy Spirit, his Comfort and Confolation, both now and at the Hour of Death.

NOW the God of Peace, that brought again from the Dead Heb. 13. 20, 21.
 our Lord Jefus, that great Shepherd of the Sheep, through the Blood of the everlasting Covenant, make you perfect in ev'ry good Work to do his Will, working in you that which is well-pleafing in his Sight, through Jefus Chrift, to whom be Glory for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ A Protestation of Faith, which may be repeated by the Sick after giving his Assent to the Creed.

From Bp. Cofins. IN this Faith, which I do unfeignedly Believe, as a true Member of Christ's Catholick Church, do I propose to finish my Life, and if ought shall happen through the Violence of my Sickness, or the Suggestions of my ghostly Enemies, whereby I shall come to think, say, or do any Thing contrary to this holy Faith and Purpose, I do here revoke it before-hand, and protest from my Soul, even before Christ and his holy Angels, that I give no Consent thereunto ; giving most humble and hearty Thanks unto my loving Creator and Redeemer, that by the wonderful Goodness of his Bounty, he hath vouchsafed to bring me to the Knowledge of this Faith in him ; which with my Soul and Body I commend into his most holy and merciful Hands, now, and at the Hour of my Death. Amen.

¶ Also this Protestation of Forgiveness.

From Bp. Cosins. I Do further most humbly desire all, and every one, whom I have offended, that they would vouchsafe to forgive me. And I do freely and heartily forgive all the World, wherein soever any hath offended me, or done me any manner of Injury whatsoever, even as I desire to be forgiven of God, and to be absolv'd from my Sins, for the Merits of my blessed Redeemer. Amen.

FOR THE S I C K.

¶ A Prayer for a Person in the beginning of his Sicknefs.

From Bishop
Taylor. O Almighty God, merciful and gracious, who in thy Justice didst send Sorrow and Tears, Sickness and Death into the World, as a Punishment for Man's Sin, and hast comprehended all under Sin, and this sad Covenant of sufferings, not to destroy us, but that thou mightest have Mercy upon all, making thy Justice to minister to Mercy, short Afflictions to an eternal Weight of Glory ;
as thou hast been pleased to turn the Sins of this thy Servant into Sicknefs, so turn, we beseech thee, his Sicknefs to the Advantage

vantage of Holiness and Religion, of Mercy and Pardon, of Faith and Hope, of Grace and Glory. Thou hast now called him to the Fellowship of Sufferings; Lord, by the means of thy Religion, let his present Condition be so sanctified, that his Sufferings may be united to the Sufferings of his Lord; that so thou may'st pity and assist him, relieve his Sorrow, and Support his Spirit, direct his Thoughts, and sanctifie the Accidents of his Sickness; that the Punishment of his Sin may be to him a School of Virtue, in which since thou hast now entered him, Lord make him an holy Proficient, that he may behave himself as a Son under Discipline, humbly and obediently, evenly and patiently, that he may be brought by this means nearer to thee; that if he shall go forth of this Sickness by the gate of Life and Health, he may return to the World with great Strength of Spirit, to run a new Race of a stricter Holiness, and a more severe Religion; or if he pass from hence thro' the Gates of Death, he may enter into the Bosom of his Lord, and may feel the present Joys of certain Hope of that Sea of Pleasures in which all thy Saints and Servants shall be comprehended to eternal Ages. Grant this, for Jesus Christ his sake, our dearest Lord and Saviour. Amen.

† A Prayer for a Thankfulness in Sickness.

✕ O God, wonderful both in thy Mercies and Judgments! Grant that the Sense of thy Servant's present Afflictions may not cause him to forget thy former Mercies, which thou hast poured out to him (and to us all) unworthy of them: O therefore let the remembrance of those many and great Blessings he hath so long enjoy'd at thy hands, be now the proper Motives and Incentives to his Virtues of Patience and Humility; causing him cheerfully to resign himself to thy blessed Will under all the dispensations of thy Providence, tho' never so hard; and patiently to wait for the return of thy Loving-kindness in Jesus, which is better than Life. Amen.

From Mr.
Kettlewell

O Gracious Lord, by whose Word Man lives, and not by any human Means alone, direct we pray thee the Counsels of those who prescribe to this thy Servant, and prosper the Medicines which are used to procure him Ease and Strength, but let not his Confidence

dence in them lessen any thing of his Dependence on thee, but make him sensible that every good Gift is from thee, and that it is thou that givest us Help in Time of need: To whom therefore, but to thee, should we flee in the Day of our Visitation? Since it is thy Blessing only that maketh the Means we use effectual; and however vain the use of them is without thee, if thou biddest them, the Things or Accidents which we don't think of, or set least by, shall recover us. O, therefore, as their part who administer to him is the Care, so let thine, O God, be the Blessing, and his the Comfort: and as he regards them as thy Instruments, so let him own thee for the Author of his Mercies, and to thee give Thanks, and pay his Vows and Services, thro' our dear Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for a sick Person when there appeareth some hope of Recovery.

From Bp. Patrick. WE thank thee, O Father, Lord of Heaven and Earth, that thou hast heard our Prayers for thy afflicted Servant, and given him some Respite and Hopes of Recovery from this great Illness. Blessed be thy Goodness, that that he hath not made his Bed in the Dust, but is likely to continue still amongst us, in the Land of the Living. Blessed be thy Goodness, for so great (and lately unexpected) Mercy to him.

And O thou Preserver of Men, who hast begun to revive and quicken him again! go on to perfect that which belongs to his Cure, and forsake not the Work of thy own Hands. Repair all the Decays in his outward Man, that his Mind may also recover its former Strength, to praise and bless thy Goodness to him.

And visit him in the mean time with thy heavenly Consolation from above. Fill him with comfortable Thoughts of thy Love, and of the tender compassionate Care which our Lord Jesus takes of all his afflicted Servants. Endue him still with more patient Submission to thy Will, and enable him both quietly to wait upon thee till thou hast finished his Recovery, and also to continue stedfastly resolved to serve thee more faithfully with his restored Strength, through Jesus Christ our most blessed Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

¶ Another in behalf of the sick Person, when he finds any Abatement of his Distemper.

ACcept, O Lord, of the unfeigned Thanks of thy Servant for abating the Fury of his present Distemper, and giving him some Hopes of raising him up again to praise thee in the great Congregation.

It is a great Mercy, O Lord, and owing to thy Goodness only, that his Senses are preserved entire, and that he hath some Respite, after so much Uneasiness and Tossings to and fro, thro' the Violence of his Illness.

O perfect (if it be thy Blessed Will) what thou hast begun in him, and say to the Distemper, It is enough.

Teach him from hence to look up to thee continually, as the Rock of his Salvation, from whence only he is to expect Comfort and Support: And give him Grace always to make such a right use of thy Favours, that he may daily find himself surrounded by the light of thy Countenance, and enjoy the Blessings of thy heavenly Benediction in all his Ways, whether in Adversity versity or Prosperity, in Sicknes or in Health. Even so, blessed Lord, continue to assist, strengthen, comfort, and bless him, both now and for evermore, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord.

¶ A Prayer for one who is dangerously ill.

O Almighty God, Gracious and Merciful, and Long-suffering, whose Compassions fail not, look down, we beseech thee, upon the low and distressed state of thy Servant, now lying in the Extremity of Sicknes. The harder his illness presses upon him, the louder does it call upon thee for Help. O be merciful therefore unto him, according to the Necessity of his Case, and according to the multitude of thy tender Mercies in Jesus Christ. Rebuke the Distemper, that it prevail not over him to Death, but turn his malevolent Aspect into a joyous Expectation of Life. In as great Danger as he is, yet if thou wilt, O Lord, we know thou canst make him whole; if thou speakest the Word, it shall be done. In Submission therefore to thy most wise and good disposal of all Things, we beg this Mercy at thy Hands, that thou wouldst let this

this bitter Cup pass away from thy Servant, and cause a Way for him to escape out of this dangerous Condition. O spare him a little, and his Soul shall live. Amen.

¶ A prayer for a Sick Person when Sicknes continues long upon him.

From Bp.
Patrick

Look down, O Lord, we humbly beseech thee, with an Eye of Compassion on thy poor distressed Servant, who hath lain so long under the heavy Wrath of thy Displeasure; and by how much the outward Man is decayed and brought low, by the Tedioufness of the Distempers continuing on him, by so much the more do thou be pleased to assist him in the inner Man by the gracious assistance of thy holy Spirit. Give him unfeigned Repentance for all the Errors of his past Life, and stedfast Faith in thy Son Jesus Christ; a comfortable Assurance of the Truth of all his precious Promises, a lively Hope of that immortal Bliss in which he Reigns for evermore, and a strong Sense of thy fatherly Love to him, and Care over him, under this his sore Affliction, which may make him heartily love thee, and entirely confide in thee, and absolutely resign both Soul and Body to thy wise Disposal.

We

114 Occasional Prayers for the Sick.

We know there is nothing too hard for thee, but that if thou wilt thou canst bring him up even from the Gates of Death, and grant him a longer continuance among us. May it be thy good Pleasure, O most gracious God, still to continue him; spare him, O Lord, and deliver him also speedily from this Misery, under which he hath so long groaned. Bless all the Means that are used for his Recovery, and for the Support of his Spirits, and give him Refreshment during this tedious Sickness. Release him from his Pain, or grant him some Ease, or else encrease and strengthen his Patience. Help him, in Remembrance of thy past loving Kindness, to trust in thy Goodness, and submit to thy Wisdom, and bear with an equal Mind what thou thinkest fit to lay upon him; and he approving himself to thee in these and all other Virtues, while thou try'st him by so sore an Affliction, may say at the last, with the holy Psalmist, It was good for me that I was in Trouble.

Unto thy infinite Mercies we recommend him, and to the compassionate Kindness of our Lord Jesus Christ, who we hope will hear all the Prayers of his Friends for him every where, and send his good Spirit to be his Comforter, and his good Angels to be his Guardians, and direct those those who are to advise and prescribe the Means of his Restoration, and bring him to praise thee again in the Assemblies of thy Saints upon Earth, or (if thou hast otherwise disposed in thy wise Counsels) to praise thee in the great Assembly of Saints and Angels in Heaven, through Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour, to whom, with thee and the holy Spirit, be all Praise, Love, and Obedience, World without end. Amen.

¶ Prayers for the Grace of Patience, and a suitable Behaviour in a Sick Person to Friends and Attendants.

HELP thy Servant, O thou merciful Redeemer and Lover of Souls, to undergo this load of Affliction which thou hast laid upon him with Patience. Lead him gently by the Hand to the Waters of Comfort, and let thy Rod and thy Staff support him, now that he is obliged to walk in the Valley and Shadow of Death.

Let him consider thee, O blessed Jesus, in all thy weary Pilgrimage and Sufferings here upon Earth, before thou enteredst into Glory, that he be not weary and faint in his Mind.

If Relief does not come from thee so soon as he expects or desires, enable him still to hold out with Long-suffering, and to wait with Patience for it. And whatsoever thou dost with him, O Lord let him be dumb, and not open his Mouth to murmur or repine, because it is thy Doing. Make him to acquiesce and rest satisfied, even in the bitterest Dispensations of thy Providence: And let no Pains or Sufferings ever drive him from thee, considering that no Temptation hath befallen him but what is common to Men; and, that the same Afflictions are accomplished in his Brethren that are in the World.

And, together with this Patience towards thee, give him Patience, O merciful Lord, towards all those who friendly and charitably minister to him, and attend about him.

Keep him from being humourfome, and shewing Crossness to their good Counsels, or from being causelessly Angry and Exceptionous against their kind Endeavours. If any evil Accidents or Indiscretions happen, let him not presently be outrageous to aggravate them, or break out into any reproachful and unseemly Behaviour against them; but let him be pleased with the least Expression of their Kindness, and interpret every Thing favourably; and on all Occasions let him make it his Study to oblige those who are obliging to him in this Time of

of Necessity, receiving with Thankfulness their good Offices, and praying God to reward them, for his Son Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

¶ Prayer for spiritual Improvement by Sickness.

From Dr.
Inet.

O Merciful Father, who scourgest those thou lovest, and chastisest those thou wilt receive: Let thy loving Correction purge out all the Dross of thy Servant, and make him great in thy Favour by his present Humiliation. O let him learn thy Statutes, in this School of Affliction: Let him seek thee early in it, and when his Heart is overwhelm'd, Lead him to the Rock that is higher than he.

Let thy Rod awaken him from his former Security in Sin, and let him sensibly find, that thou chastisest him for his Profit, that he may be partaker of thy Holiness.

Teach him, by this Proof of thy fatherly Correction, to be more dutiful for the Time to come; to repent of his former Miscarriages, and to redeem the Time past, by a double Diligence for the future, if thou shalt in Mercy raise him up again. Let the Remainder of his Life be thine, and let nothing separate him from thy Love and Service, but let it be his whole Care and Study dy to provide Oyl for his Lamp, and to trim and adorn his Soul for Eternity ; That so all the Days of his appointed Time he may wait till his Change come, and be ready whensoever his Lord shall call him. Amen.

¶ For a Sick Person, who is about to make his Will.

O Lord, who puttest into our Hearts good Desires, and hast inclined thy Servant to set his House in Order, as well in relation to his temporal, as his spiritual Concerns, grant that he may do it with exact Justice, according to the Rules of his holy Religion, and the Dictates of right Reason. He unfeignedly thanks thee for thy great Mercies, in having so liberally provided for him, that he may be rather helpful than chargeable to any, and die a Benefactor, and not in Debt.

We charitably hope, that what he is now about to dispose of, was all procur'd by fair and righteous Dealings, that he may comfortably feel, that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

But if his Conscience accuse him of any thing unjustly gotten, O let him confess it, and bring out the accursed Thing with Achan, and do Glory to God and his self, before he goes hence, and be no more seen.

Lord give him Strength to order all Things in as due and regular a manner as if he was well. Let his Memory be perfect, and his Judgment sound, and his Heart so rightly disposed, that he may do nothing amiss, or thro' Partiality, but that Justice and Integrity may be seen thro' the whole Conduct of his Will.

Let the light of his Charity If Rich, add this. likewise shine gloriously before Men, that out of the Abundance thou hast been pleas'd to bless him with, he may plentifully give to the poor and distressed, though no otherwise related to him, but as they are Members of Jesus Christ, and Brethren and Sisters of the same Communion.

¶ A Prayer for a sick Penitent.

From Mr.
Kettlewell.

Righteous art thou, O God, in all the Pains and Sorrows which punish our Sins, and try our Patience, and we have none to accuse or complain of for the same but our selves. This is the acknowledgment which thy Servant makes, whom thou hast now afflicted. He receives it as the Chastisement of a Sinner, and is willing to bear Chastisement for his Sins, that he may thereby be reclaimed from them. Correct him, O Lord, that thou may'st not condemn him, and let him be judged by thee for his Sins, and judge himself for them here, that he may have nothing but Mercy without Judgment to receive at thine Hands hereafter.

But judge him, O God, with Mercy, and not in thine Anger. Judge him not according as his Sins have deserved, but according as his Weakness can bear, and according as thy Compassions are wont to mitigate thy Judgments; and let his Afflictions work in him a true Repentance not to be repented of, and prove an happy Means, in the

THOU smitest him, O gracious God, that thou mayest cure him; and punishest his Sin, that thou mayst thereby amend and reclaim his Person: And he is weary of his Sins, which have brought upon him all these Sorrows, and which he seems now deeply sensible of, will bring infinitely worse, unless he prevents the same, by his timely and sincere Repentance of them.

Help him therefore to search them out, O God, and to discover every accursed Thing: And when he sees them, let him not stop at any one, but set himself entirely to renounce and amend all: Let thy Love make him hate every evil Way, and make his Purposes against them strong and resolute, and his Care in fulfilling the same vigilant and patient; and at the Remainder of his Days, to be one continual Defacement of his former Errors, and Devotion of himself to thy Service.

Lord, cure his Folly by his Misery, and teach him, by the Loss of his Ease, to purchase the Blessing of true Repentance, and the comfortable Hopes of thy merciful Acceptance thereof, thro' the Merits of our dear Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for a Sick Person, who intends to receive the blessed Sacrament.

O Thou Infinite and Eternal Spirit, from whom every good Motion of our Heart proceedeth! Who both quickenest the Dead, and after thou hast given Life, givest the increase: Increase, we beseech thee, the good Seeds of thy Grace, which thou hast sown in the Heart of thy Servant, by inclining him to receive the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of our Lord, in which thou art more immediately present, to illuminate the Faithful, and to comfort, and refresh all that are weary and heavy laden with their Sins.

Come down, O Lord, as Fire, upon all that are thus heavenly-minded, to consume their Dross, and purify their Affections, and to enflame them with Seraphick Love, that (with St Peter, in thy Transfiguration) upon coming to thy heavenly Banquet, they may say in Extasies of Joy and Admiration, It is good for us to be here.

O cause thy Face thus comfortably to shine upon thy distressed Servant, who now intends to draw near to thee in this Sacrament, as thou hast commanded him. Let his Soul be satisfied as with Marrow and Fatness, when he shall praise thee there with joyful Lips.

Help him in the mean time, O Lord, to fit and prepare himself for the due Reception of such holy Mysteries. Fill his Soul with all Reverence and godly Fear ; with earnest Desires and Longings after the Divine Life ; with serious Repentance for all his past Miscarriages, and hearty Resolutions of living for ever after unto Jesus, who died for him. O let him receive a broken and a bleeding Saviour with a broken and a contrite Heart, which thou hast promised not to despise. Forgive him all that is past, and give him Grace for the future, to live more soberly, righteously, and godlily, in this present World, if it shall be thy good Pleasure to continue him in it.

Raise his Affections from Earth to Heaven, and let him hunger and thirst after Righteousness, as he was wont to do after his bodily Sustenance.

If he be still toss'd upon a wearisome Bed, without any Rest, O that his Mind may rest, and repose it self in the Bosom of thy dearest Love, and may feel the most sensible Consolations from Heaven, not only quieting, but greatly rejoicing his Heart. Preserve the use of his Understanding, and let the Enemy have no Advantage of him, but make him able to say, I will wait patiently for the Lord, 'till he incline his Ear unto me, and hear my Cry. O hear his Prayer, O Lord, and give ear unto his Cry: O spare him, that he may recover Strength before he go hence and be no more, for Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

¶ A Prayer to be said when the sick Person grows Light-headed.

From Bishop
Patrick.

O Lord, look down from Heaven, in much Pity and Compassion, upon this thy afflicted Servant, who is not able now to look up unto thee: The sadder his Condition grows, the fitter Object it is of thy infinite tender Mercies; who acceptest, we believe, of the Submission he made of himself in the beginning beginning of his Sickness, to thy Almighty Wisdom and Goodness. And therefore since it is thy Pleasure to suffer his Distemper to proceed to this dangerous Extremity, do thou no less graciously love him, and delight in him, than if he could still give up himself to thy blessed Will.

And hear, O most merciful Father, our Prayers in his behalf; excite them also to a greater Ardency than ever for him, now that he can no longer commend himself to thy Mercies. Pardon, good Lord, pardon all his Sins; impute not to him any of his former Follies; lay not to his Charge his not improving, or any ways misusing of his Reason and Understanding, which we earnestly, but humbly, entreat thee to restore to him, together with such a measure of thy divine Grace, as may quicken and assist him then to employ his Thoughts to the best Purposes, especially in meditating on thy Mercies, in studying thy Praise, and in exhorting all others to love thee, and trust thee, and sincerely obey thee.

And while he remains thus deprived of his Reason, be pleased to quiet and compose his Spirits, or to prevent all furious Motions there, or quickly to abate such violent Passions, if any arise: For which end, be pleased to remove all frightful Imaginations far from him, and suffer not the evil one to approach him; preserve him from doing any Harm, either to himself or to any others. Forsake him not,

O Lord our God, be not far from him. Make haste to help him, O Lord our Salvation. He is poor and needy, but the Lord thinketh on him. Thou art our Helper and Deliverer, make no tarrying, O our God, so will we give Thanks unto thee for ever.

We will be still praising thee, and shewing forth thy Loving-Kindness to those who succeed us.

That they may set their Hope in thee our God, and not forget thy Works, but keep thy Commandments.

Amen, Amen, make us all so happy, for Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for a Person when Danger is apprehended by excessive Sleep.

From Mr. Kettlewell

O Merciful God, let not this deep Sleep, which is fallen on thy Servant, prove the Sleep of Death; make it the Sleep of a recovering Person, to relieve and revive him, not to carry him off: And awake him out of it in thy due time to offer thee Praise, and to labour still among us, in doing thee Honour and Service.

But

But if thou hast order'd thereby to take him to thy self, Lord, remember and accept of all his former Prayers and Repentance, Faith and Patience.

Look not upon his Sins, but to pardon them ; no on his Weaknesses, but to pity them : And when he awakes in the next World, let him find himself surrounded with Light and Bliss, instead of his sick-Bed-Sorrows, and awake to eternal Life with thee in Glory.

Lord, hear us for this thy weak Servant in Distress ; Hear our Prayers for him, who seems not able now to offer up any Prayers to thee for himself. And accept both him and us, to the blessed Enjoyment of thy Love, and Hopes of thy Mercies, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for a Person lying insensible on a sick Bed.

O Thou Preserver of Men, who knowest the Frailty of our Constitutions ; how soon our Senses may fail us, and our Understanding depart from us, : To what Accidents, Distempers, and Decays our weak Nature is subject ; even such as may make the most Acute and Judicious, quickly become as Fools ; and the most able and strong as weak as Water, and as insensible

as that inanimate Being. Look down we beseech thee upon thy poor Servant, who now lies in such a weak and insensible Condition.

The less able he is to do for himself, the more need hath he of our Prayers, and of thy tender Mercy to him. O thou great Creator of the World! who broughtest Light out of Darkness, and madest all Things out of nothing, and canst restore our dead Bodies again after they are mouldred into Atoms! be pleased to repel the Clouds of Darkness which now have taken away the Light of our Brother's Understanding, and rendered him a Companion for the Dead.

Quicken him again, O Lord, and restore him to his former Senses, that his Soul may bless and praise thy holy Name. For in Death no Man remembreth thee, and who will give thee thanks in the pit?

Hear our Petition therefore, O Lord, and receive our Prayers for our Brother, that this Image of Death may not be converted into Death it self, but that he may live to proclaim thy Power, and to celebrate thy Praises here amongst us longer upon Earth.

But if it be thy Will to move him hence, in this Lethargical Condition, O pardon,
we

we beseech thee, all his Offences, and accept of that Preparation and Repentance he was able to make before the Distemper prevail'd upon him in so deadly a manner. Receive him, O Lord, into the Arms of thy Mercy, and accept him, for thy well-beloved Son's sake ; that so this short Night may quickly be turn'd into everlasting Day ; and after these dark Shadows are remov'd, he may find himself in an Heaven of Happiness, where, in thy Light, he may see Light for ever. Amen.

O Lord God, of infinite Goodness and Compassion ! whose Mercies are over all thy Works ; who makest the Sun to shine, and the Rain to descend upon the unjust as well as the just, and art kind even to the most unthankful : We humbly beseech thee to look down in Mercy upon this thy unworthy Servant, who hath so long trampled upon the Riches of thy Goodness, not knowing that the Goodness of God leadeth to Repentance.

Let thy Rod therefore awaken him now to a Sense of his Condition, whom thy Goodness hath not reclaim'd, and let him still still find Mercy at thy Hands, notwithstanding his continual Abuse of it.

Thou hast promised, O Lord, that when the wicked Man turneth away from his Wickedness that he hath committed, and doth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his Soul alive. O make good this thy Promise to thy Servant here, who stands in so much need of it.

Hide thy Face from his Sins; and blot out all his Iniquities. Though they be red as Scarlet, yet do thou make them white as Snow, by Repentance, which we beg of thee to give him, and to accept, though late, for the Merits of thy dearly beloved Son.

Simon Magus, though in the Gall of Bitterness, and the Bond of Iniquity, was bid to repent, and to pray for Pardon; and therefore we hope the Gate of Life is still open for our Brother, though he hath so long shut himself out of it, by going on in a Course that leadeth to the Chambers of Death.

Blessed Lord! let thy Terrors at length awaken him out of this lethargical Condition, before he is overtaken by thy Judgments. Afflict him here, that thou mayest spare him hereafter. Break thou his stony Heart, that it may gush out with Waters of Sorrow, to bewail his ill-spent Life; and as Mary Magdalen's Tears, to wash away the Stain and Filthiness of it.

O quicken him to a Sense of his Duty, and his Danger, before it be too late. And when thou hast brought him to his right Mind, receive him, we beseech thee, as the compassionate Father did his prodigal Son, or the Shepherd his lost Sheep; or as the Master of the Vineyard admitted Labourers into his Service at the eleventh Hour, and gave them an equal Reward with those who had born the Heat and Burden of the Day; so we beseech thee to admit this thy Servant into the Fellowship of Christ's Flock, and give him the Rewards of thy more faithful Servants, out of the Abundance of the Riches of thy Goodness to repenting Sinners, in Jesus Christ.

Thou, O Lord, who didst pardon the Thief upon the Cross, hear our Prayers for our Brother, in these his sick-bed and, for ought we know, his last Agonies.

And as the fore-mentioned Instances are lively Significations of thy unbounded Goodness, and were written for our Comfort and Instruction, that none should despair of Pardon; so with the greater Confidence we now recommend this our distressed Brother to thy divine Protection, beseeching thee to forgive all that is past, and to wash him with the Blood of thy Son, and to receive him at last into thy everlasting Habitation. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for one who is harden'd and impenitent.

LORD God Almighty, who art the Father of our Spirits, and who turnest the Hearts of Men as thou pleasest; who hast Mercy on whom thou wilt have Mercy, and whom thou wilt thou hardenest! Let thy merciful Ears be open, we pray thee, to the Supplications which we now offer to thy Divine Majesty, in the behalf of this thy Servant, who appears utterly insensible of his Sin and Folly, and on whom all Means to lead him to Repentance have hitherto seem'd vain and ineffectual. Take from him, we humbly entreat thee, all Ignorance and Hardness of Heart: Remove from him all Prejudice against, and Contempt of thy sacred Word and Ministry: Let him no longer make a Mock of Sin, but be sensible that the Wisdom he has hitherto gloried in, is the greatest and most dangerous Folly. Open thou his Eyes, that he may see the wonderful Things of thy Law. Shew thy Mercy upon him, and grant him thy thy Salvation. Convince him of the Sinfulness of Sin, and the Vanity and Madnefs, as well as danger of his past Ways.

His Understanding, we fear, is now darkned, and his Heart hardened thro' the deceitfulness of Sin: O do thou enlighten his dark Mind, and let him at last see the Beauties of Holiness, which have so long been hid from his Eyes. Take from him this stony Heart, and give him an Heart of Flesh. Awaken his slumbering and inattentive Soul, that it may delight in Things agreeable to its Nature, and be employ'd in Things that make for its everlasting Peace. O give him Understanding, and he shall yet live. Thou that canst revive Souls which are dead in Sin and Trespases, and make even such as lie in the Grave of Corruption to become glorious Saints, and even Myrtyrs for Religion, hear our Prayers for our Brother, who seems to be on the Brink of Destruction; and pity poor Sinners, that have not Pity on themselves.

'Tis the Unhappiness of a long living in, and being accustomed to Sin, that we are not soon made sensible of our Errors, nor easily made to know them. 'Tis the Pride of our Nature to be loth to acknowledge our Faults, and to confess our Sins: But let thy Grace, O God, teach us to deny this ungodly Lust. Do thou pull down in us all high and vain Imagination. Crush and suppress all proud Thoughts and haughty Opinions of our selves. Give us all, and particularly thy Servant, whom we are now interceding for, a Sense of our own Vileness. Give us unfeigned Repentance for all the Errors of our Life past; that being cast down, thou mayst raise us up, and become merciful to us miserable Sinners.

Let us all find, by blessed Experience, that we grow in Grace, and in the Knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ; and that his Commandments are not grievous to us, but rather the Delight and Desire of our Souls, that so at last we may be presented to him holy and unblameable, and unreprieveable in his Sight. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for a sick Woman that is with Child.

O God, the Help of all that put their Trust in thee, the Support of the Weak, and the Relief of the Needy! Look with Pity upon this Woman, thy Servant, who at best acknowledgeth her self but a weak and helpless Creature, but much more so now in her present Condition, on, when thou hast added Weakness to Weakness, and made her to travail with much Sickness, together with the Burden of Child-bearing.

O Lord, be thou graciously pleas'd to proportion thy Strength to her Weakness, and as Pains and Sorrow take hold upon her, inspire her with fresh Vigour and Courage to rely upon thee, her only support in Time of need, and Rock of her Salvation.

Let her not be disquieted with the fear of any Evil, since none can happen unto her without thy Leave; but give her Grace patiently to resign herself to thy blessed Will in all Things, who knowest what is best for her, and wilt lay no more upon her, we trust, than thou wilt enable her to bear.

Bring Strength, O Lord, out of Weakness, and Health out of Sickness; and make her, in thy good Time, a joyful Mother of a hopeful Child, which may do good in its Generation, and be an Instrument of thy Glory here, and a blessed Inhabitant of thy heavenly Kingdom hereafter.

¶ *A Prayer for a Woman in the Time of her Travail.*From Bp.
Patrick.

O Most mighty Lord, who hast given us innumerable Pledges of thy Love, and encouraged us to trust in thee for ever, and to expect with quiet and patient Minds the Issue of thy wise and good Providence : We most humbly commend thy Servant in this her Extremity, to thy care and Blessing ; beseeching thee to give her a gracious Deliverance, and to ease her of the Burden wherewith she labours. We our selves are Monuments of that Mercy which we beg of thee. Thou broughtest us into this World, and didst unloose the Bands wherewith we were swaddled in our Mothers Womb. We have also had long experience of thy Readiness to succour us, and to do us good ever since, many Times beyond our Hopes, and always beyond our Deservings. We dare not but commit our selves, and every Thing belonging unto us, most heartily into thy Hands ; remembering that thou hast the same Power and Goodness still, by which we came into the Light of the Living. We cannot desire to be better provided for, than as thy infinite Wisdom judgeth most convenient for us ; unto that we refer refer our selves, beseeching thee (if it be thy good Pleasure) that her Deliverance may be as speedily as her cries unto thee ; or her Patience as great and long as her Pains. Thou who ripenest the Fruits of the Earth, and then givest us the gathering of them to our Comfort ; blast not, we beseech thee, the Fruit of the Womb ; but bring it to Maturity, and deliver it safe into thy Servant's Hand, as a new Pledge of thy Goodness to her, to be an Instrument of thy Glory, and a future Comfort and Blessing to thy Servant, who travails in so much Pain with it now. Or if thou hast otherwise determined, Lord, give her Grace to submit to thy holy Will, and to rest satisfied in thy wise appointments, and never to distrust thy Goodness and Care over her. Hear us, O Father of Mercies, and pardon hers and all our Offences, and pity our Infirmities : Make us more thankful for what we have received, and more fit for the Blessing which we now request ; and prepare us for all thy future Mercies, either in this Life, or in the next, through thy infinite Love and Compassion declared to us, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Amen.

¶ A Prayer for a Woman who cannot be delivered without Difficulty and Hazard.

O Lord God of all Comfort and Consolation, who art the Refuge of the Distressed, and the Help of all that depend upon thee; we thy unworthy Servants do now offer up our Supplications at the Throne of thy Majesty, in the behalf of this thy Servant, who is in great pain and Misery. Thou hast been pleased to bring the Child to the Birth, but there is not Strength to bring forth. On this Account thy Servant is in violent Agonies, crying out in her Pangs, and pouring out her Soul to thee in Prayer. O grant that it may be in a time when thou mayest be found.

Thou art our hiding-place; thou shalt preserve us from Trouble; thou shalt compass us about with Songs of Deliverance. O let thy Servant feel these blessed Effects of thy Goodness, and as thou hast brought to the Birth, enable her, we beseech thee, to bring forth, that she may rejoyce in the Workmanship of thy Hands, and tell of all thy wondrous Works.

Consider the low Estate of thine Handmaid, and deliver her Soul from Death, her Eyes from Tears, and her Feet from falling. Gracious art thou, O Lord, and right-

righteous; thou preservest the simple, and helpest those that are in Misery. Help thy Servant therefore now, we humbly entreat thee, who stands in so much Need of it. Accept her Tears, and assuage her Pain, as shall seem most expedient for her. And forasmuch as she putteth her whole Trust in thee, give her Strength and Patience proportionable to all her Pains and Agonies. Support her Spirits under them, and, if thou pleasest, carry her safely through the same, and make her to hear of Joy and Gladness, that the Bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

Restore unto her, O Lord, the Joy of thy Salvation, and uphold her with thy free Spirit; then shall she teach Transgressors thy Way, and Sinners shall be converted unto thee. Deliver her from this great Affliction, O God, thou God of her Salvation, and her Tongue shall sing aloud of thy Righteousness.

Thy Mercies and Power are still the same, and will be the same for ever. O let them now be shewn for this thy Servant's Delivery, * as they have been formerly on the same Occasion: That so by having fresh Instances of thy loving-Kindness, she may still praise thee more and more.

 This to be omitted if it be the first Child.*

But

142 Occasional Prayers for the Sick.

But if in thy fatherly Providence, to which we pray she may willingly submit herself, thou hast determined otherwise concerning her, thy blessed Will, O our God, be done: dispose of her either to Life or Death, as thou pleasest, only in both, in thy Mercy, whether living or dying, let her still please thee, and be thou her Portion for ever. O perfect her Repentance, and purge away all her Sins: Give her Patience whilst she lives, and Peace when she dies, and after Death the Happiness to see thy Face in a blessed Eternity, which thou hast promised and prepared for all that love and fear thee. O hear our Prayers, and grant our Requests for thy well-beloved Son's sake, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for Grace and Assistance for a Woman under the Trials and Sorrows of Childbed.

O Father of Mercies! what Thanks can we worthily give unto thee for thy unspeakable Goodness to this thy Servant, and her helpless Babe, and for the wondrous Things which thou hast done for her Soul? For the Pangs and Sorrow of Death compassed her, and she found Trouble and Sorrow: The Mouth of the Pit was open'd, and ready to shut it it self upon her, but thou hast graciously asswaged those Pains, and wrought Deliverance, and turn'd her Sorrows into Joys; when she cried, thou answeredst her, and strengthenedst her with Strength in her Soul.

Lord, we will ever adore and magnify thy Mercy, which dealt so lovingly with her, and praise thy Truth and Faithfulness, which have not suffered thy Promises, or her Hopes to fail. We will never forget how mindful thou hast been of the low Estate of thy Hand-maid; for she hath felt thy Power, O blessed God! in her greatest Weakness, and has been enabled thereby above her Strength. She has tasted thy Goodness in the midst of all her piercing Pangs and Sorrows; for thou didst comfort and support her under them, and didst measure them out to her, according as she could bear them; and in tender Pity didst deliver her Soul from Death, and send her Ease, yea, hast turned her Sorrows into Joys, when she could bear no more.

Perfect, good Lord, that Deliverance to her which thou hast most graciously begun, and let her not be lost, after the Wonders which thou hast already done for her.

Continue her Patience, O Father! and her humble Dependance on, and comfortable

ble Hope in thee, under any farther Pains and Accidents of her Child-bed. Support her Spirits under them, and if thou pleasest, carry her safely through the same, and raise her up again in thy due Time. Thy Mercy and Power are still the same, and will be the same for ever, O! let them still be shewn for her Recovery, as they've been already for her Delivery; let them be shewn upon her, that she may still praise thee more and more; and because she places her Safety in thy Love and Care, and puts her Hope and Trust in thee.

But if in thy paternal Providence, whereunto we pray she may willingly commit her self, thou hast determin'd otherwise concerning her, thy blessed Will, O our God, be done. Dispose her either to Life or Death, as thou pleasest, only in both to thy Mercy; and whether living or dying, let her still please thee, and be thou her Portion. Oh! perfect her Repentance, and purge away all her Sins, and give her Patience whilst she lives, and Peace when she dies, and after that, the Happiness to see thy Face in a blessed Eternity, which thou hast prepared and promised to all that truly fear thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

¶ If the Child be living, this may be added.

PReserve likewise her tender Child, O Father of Mercies, and let its own Weakness, and our Cries, commend it to thy blessed Care; [*preserve it to be regenerated, and born again by Baptism, and thereby made thine own Child by Adoption, which is infinitely a greater Blessing both to it and its Parent, than thy making it her Child.]

 This is to be omitted if the Child be baptized.*

Keep it also afterwards in Health and Safety, and as it encreases in Years and Stature, let it withal encrease in Wisdom, and in thy Fear. We beg not for it Wealth or Greatness, but Wisdom to know and to serve thee. For, O Lord, we do not desire Life, either for our selves or it, but that we may live to thee, and grow in daily Love and Thankfulness for all thy Mercies, and in Faith and Patience, and all holy Obedience, which may fit us all for ever to enjoy thee, through Jesus Christ our only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

O Most gracious Father, Lord of Heaven and Earth, Judge of the Living and the Dead, behold thy Servants running to thee for Pity and Mercy, in behalf of our selves and this thy Servant, whom thou hast smitten with thy hasty Rod and a swift Angel. It was but lately that we beheld him in as promising a State of Health and Life, as any one of us seems to be in at present, and therefore our Surprize is so much the greater to behold so sudden a Change, and so unlook'd for an Instance of our frail Mortality.

We know, O Lord, thou canst bring back from the Mouth of the Grave, and as suddenly suddenly raise thy Servant again as thou hast cast him down, and therefore we think it not too late to implore thy Mercy upon him for his Recovery; at least we beg of thee to spare him a little, that he may recover his Strength, and have Time to make his Peace with thee, before he go hence and is no more seen. But if it be thy Will to translate him now by a quick Dispatch into another World, O! let the Miracles of thy compassion, and thy wonderful Mercy, supply to him the Want of the usual Measures of Time, to trim and adorn his Lamp, and to fit himself for Eternity. And let the greatness of his Calamity be a Means to procure his Pardon for those Defects and Degrees of Unreadiness, which, it may be, hath caused this Accident upon thy Servant. And teach us all, we beseech thee, from this unexpected Fate of our Brother, to be continually upon our Guard, and to watch and pray, since we know not the Hour, when the Master of the House cometh, whether at Even, or at Midnight, or at the Cockcrowing, or in the Morning.

Lord, thou hast now called thy Servant before he was aware of it; O give him such a great and effectual Repentance in this his Exigence, that in a short Time it may be sufficient to do the Work of many Days. Thou regardest, O Lord, the Measures of the Sincerity of our Hearts more than the Measures of Time in our Conversation ; accept therefore, we beseech thee, the few Minutes of thy Servants unfeigned Tears and Humiliation for his Sins, as though they were Hours and Days of a longer Preparation ; and let it be thy Pleasure to rescue him from all the Evils he deserves, and all the Evils he fears, that in the Songs of Eternity, which Angels and Saints shall sing to the Glory of thy Nature, this also may be reckon'd amongst thy invaluable Mercies, that thou hast redeemed this Soul from eternal Death, and make him Partaker of the Gift of God, eternal Life, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Give him unfeigned Repentance for all the Errors of his Life past, and stedfast Faith in thy Son Jesus, that his Sins may be done away by thy Mercy, and his Pardon sealed in Heaven, before he go hence, and be no more seen. / We know, O Lord, that there is no Word impossible with thee, and that, if thou wilt, thou canst even yet raise him up, and grant him a longer Continuance amongst us. Quickly shall we be as water spilt on the Ground, which cannot be gathered up again. Quickly shall we be snatched away from hence, and our Place here shall know us no more for ever.

Our Bodies shall soon lie down in the Grave, and our Souls be summon'd to appear before the Tribunal of Christ, to receive our everlasting Doom either to Bliss or Woe; and yet, O Lord, how do the Generality of Mankind live in this World, as tho' they were never to leave it! How unminded are we all of our latter End! How improvident of our Time! How careless of our Souls, and negligent in our Preparations for Eternity! So that thou mightest justly cut us off in the midst of our Sins, and our unpreparedness to appear before thee. But O God of all Comfort and Mercy, remember not our Sins against thee, but remember thy own Love to us in Jesus Christ, and thy tender Mercies which have been ever of old. Quicken thy Servant, O Lord, into a powerful and serious Consideration of these Things, now thou hast brought him into a more intimate Acquaintance with them. Instruct him, good Lord, and assist him in this great Work of Preparation to die. Shew him how to do it, and help him with good Success to perform it; that when the Time of his Dissolution draweth near, he may have nothing else to do, but to resign himself chearfully and willingly into thy Hands, as into the Hands of a merciful Creator, there to remain with thee for ever in that blessed Peace, where Sin and Sicknes and Death shall be no more. Amen.

Office.*

O Almighty God, with whom do live the Spirits of just Men made perfect, after they are delivered from their earthly Prisons ; we humbly commend the Soul of this thy Servant our dear Brother, into thy Hands, as into the Hands of a faithful Creator, and most merciful Saviour ; most humbly beseeching thee, that it may be precious in thy sight. Wash it, we pray thee, in the Blood of that immaculate Lamb that was slain to take away the Sins of the World ; that whatsoever Defilements it may have contracted in the midst of this miserable and naughty World, thro' the Lusts of the Flesh, or the Wiles of Satan, being purged and done away, it may be presented pure and without Spot before thee. And teach us, who survive in this and other like daily Spectacles of Mortality, to see how frail and uncertain our own Condition is, and so to number our Days, that we may seriously apply our Hearts to that holy and heavenly Wisdom, whilst we live here, which may in the End bring us to Life everlasting, through the Merits of Jesus Christ thine only Son our Lord. Amen.

From Bp.

O Holy and most gracious Jesus, we humbly recommend the Soul of thy Servant into thy Hands, thy most merciful Hands: Let thy blessed Angels stand in Ministry about thy Servant, and defend him from the Violence and Malice of all his ghostly Enemies, and drive far from hence all the Spirits of Darknefs. Amen.

II.

Lord receive the Soul of this thy Servant: Enter not into Judgment with him; spare him whom thou hast redeem'd with thy most precious Blood, and deliver him (for whose Sake thou didst suffer Death) from all Evil and Mischief, from the Crafts and Assaults of the Devil; from the Fear of Death, and from everlasting Death. Amen.

III.

Lord impute not unto him the Follies of his Youth, nor any of the Errors and Mis-carriages of his Life; but strengthen him in his Agony, and carry him safely thro' the last Distress. Lord, thou hast been our Refuge from one Generation to another.

Before the Mountains were brought forth or ever the Earth and the World were made, thou art God from everlasting, and World without end.

As soon as thou scatterest them, they are even asleep, and fade away suddenly like the Grass.

In the Morning it is green, and groweth up; but in the Evening it is cut down, dried up, and withered.

So we all of us consume away in thy Displeasure, and are afraid at thy wrathful Indignation.

Thou settest our Misdeeds before thee, and our secret Sins are ever in the light of thy Countenance.

And when thou art Angry, all our Days are gone; and we bring our Tears to an end, as it were a Tale that is told.

So teach us, therefore, O Lord, to number our Days, that we may apply our Hearts unto Wisdom.

Turn thee again at last and be gracious to thy Servants.

Comfort them again, now after the time that thou hast visited them, and for the present Occasion, wherein they suffer Adversity.

O satisfie them with thy Mercy, and that soon, so shall they rejoyce and be glad all the Days of their Life.

MOST just art thou, O God, in all thy dealings with us, and our Punishment is less than our Iniquities deserve; and therefore we desire to submit with all Humility and Patience to this sad Dispensation of thy divine Providence. Be pleased so to sanctify it to this Family, that at the Breach thou hast made, thy Grace and Mercy may enter in, and more abundantly flow upon thy Servants. Thy Property it is to bring Good out of Evil, O turn that Evil which is now befallen this House, to the Good and Benefit of every one of us, that so we may be able to say from happy Experience, That the House of Mourning is better than the House of Feasting, while the Death of our Brother (thro' thy Blessing) shall conduce and minister to our spiritual Advantage.
and

Let the Sight of his Charge make us the more mindful of our own, and the Sense of our Loss make us cleave the more closely to thee, our God. Let the Remembrance of his Virtues make us follow his Example, and the Hope we have of his being blessed, cause us to press (with the more Earnestness) towards the Mark, for the Prize of the high Calling of God, in Christ Jesus.

Thou knowest, O Lord, the Weakness and Frailty of our Nature, and therefore, we beseech thee to give thy Servants, who are more nearly concern'd in this sad Affair, a constant Supply of thy good Spirit, to enable 'em to bear it with that Humility, Patience, resignation, and Submission to

O that no repining Thoughts may rise in their Hearts to discompose their Duty towards thee, or towards their Neighbour; but help 'em rather to think wherein they have offended thee, and carefully to amend it; to place their Affections more stedfastly on those unmoveable things which are above, and freely to resign all their Thoughts and Desires unto thee; saying, with holy Job, The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the Name of the Lord. And let the Death of thy Servant strike us all with such a lively Sense of our Mortality, as may cause us so thoroughly to die to Sin, and live to Grace, as that, when we die to Nature, we may be alive to God, through Christ, and rest in him, as our Hope is this our Brother doth.

We evidently see before our Eyes, that Death is the end of all Men; Grant us therefore Grace, that are living, to lay it to Heart: So lay it to Heart as to despise the World, to abhor that which is evil, and cleave to that which is good: to delight in thy Word, to study thy Will, to observe thy Law, to seek thy Favour, and to take the best Course, and all possible Care to promote thy Honour, and our own and others Salvation; that so when we go the Way of all the

And regard, O Christ, the importunate Desires of those thy Servants, who long for thy appearing, and, Night and Day, with restless Supplication Sighs and Tears, do humbly and heartily pray and sue for it.

Hear them, we entreat thee, and according to thy last most gracious Promise to thy militant Church, Come Lord Jesus, come quickly; that so we, together with all thy holy ones, may be glorified in Soul and Body, and enjoy a most perfect and endless Blessedness, by being with thee where thou art, to behold thy Glory for ever and ever.

Assist us mercifully, O Lord, in these our Supplications and Prayers, and dispose the Way of thy Servants towards the Attainment of everlasting Salvation; that among all the Changes and Chances of this mortal Life, they may ever be defended by thy most gracious and ready Help, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Occasional Prayers and Devotions for the Sick and Calamitous in extraordinary Cases.

¶ A Prayer for a Person whose Illness is chiefly brought on him by some calamitous Disaster or Loss, as of Estate, Relation, or Friends, &c.

From Bishop.
Patrick.

O Most great and glorious Lord God of Heaven and Earth, supreme Judge and Governor of the World, in whom we live, and move and have our Being, and from whom all the Blessings we enjoy, and every good and perfect Gift cometh, grant us, we most humbly beseech thee, such a Measure of thy Grace, that when at any time thou art pleased to remove any of thy Blessings from us, we may bear it with a perfect Submission and Resignation to thy Divine Will, and with all Patience, Humility, and Contentedness of Spirit, considering ing how unworthy we are of any of the least of thy Mercies.

More particularly, O Lord, we beg of thee at present, to send this Peaceableness and Contentedness of Mind, on this thy Servant, whom thou hast so sensibly touched, and taken so near and dear a Blessing from him. O give him such a Portion of thy blessed Spirit, and such a lively Sense of his Duty, that he may have Power to surmount all the Difficulties he labours under, and freely to resign all his Thoughts and Desires unto thee, submitting himself entirely to thy good Providence, and resolving, by thy gracious Assistance, to rest contented with whatsoever thou in thy Wisdom appointest for him. Let him say, with good old Eli, It is the Lord, let him do what seemeth him good; or with holy Job. The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the Name of the Lord. Thou knowest, O Lord, the weakness and Frailty of our Nature, and therefore be pleased to comfort him in this Bed of Sickness, and establish him with the Light of thy Countenance again, and grant, that no repining Thoughts may add Fuel to the Fire, and increase his Illness or Disorder, or discompose his Duty towards thee, or his Neighbour; but help him rather to think wherein he hath offended thee, and carefully to amend it ; to set his Affections on Things above, and not on Things below, and to lay up for himself Treasures in Heaven, even the Treasures of a good Life, which no Disasters or Calamities shall ever be able to take from him. Grant this, O heavenly Father, for the alone Merits of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

¶ A Prayer for a Person, that by any calamitous Disaster hath broken any of his Bones, or is very much bruised and hurt in his Body.

From Mr.
Jenks.

O Lord most high, the all-disposing God, thou hast taught us that Affliction cometh not forth of the Dust ; neither doth trouble spring out of the Ground ; that it does not come by chance, without thy Appointment, but is the Messenger dispatch'd on thy Errands, who hast an overruling Hand in all the Disasters that befall us, whatever is the immediate Occasion of our Hurts : And thou art just in all thou bringest on us ; and tho' thy Judgments are far above out of our Sight, yet we know, that they are right, and that it is in very Faithfulness that thou causest us to be afflicted. And why then should a living Man complain, a Man for the Punishment of his Sins ?

Sins? Let these Considerations prevail with thy Servant to submit to thy Hand, and not contend with thee; make him to resolve to bear the Effects of thy Displeasure, and to consider it as the just Desert of his Sins, if a worse thing had happen'd unto him. O, our God, give him Patience and Strength, and Grace proportionable to this great Trial; and enable him so to demean himself under it, that after the Affliction is over, he may find Cause to say, It was good for him to be Afflicted. Thou that hast torn and smitten, thou art able to heal and bind up his Sores; O, be pleas'd to remember him in this his low Estate, out of that Mercy of thine, which endures for ever. Help him to find out what has provoked thee so to stretch out thine Hand against him. O that he may search and try his Ways and turn to thee, and bring forth Fruits meet for Repentance; and for his sake who was wounded for our Transgressions, and bruised for our Iniquities, forgive and heal his Soul that hath sinned against thee; and in thy good Time repair the Breaches made in his Body also, that he may perfectly recover of this sad Calamity, [* and his disjointed Bones be set together again, or those that are broken may rejoyce, by being made whole.]

We know, O Lord, if thou wilt thou canst heal these Bones (or this Body) which thou hast vexed. O may it be thy gracious Pleasure, to work so wonderfully for thy Servant, and glorify thy Power and Mercy in his Help and Recovery; or however thou shalt think fit to dispose of this vile Body, grant him, O God, a Mind entirely resign'd to thy Will, and satisfied with thy Dealings: and make this sad Dispensation, which is so grievous for the Time, gracious in the Issue. O make it the Messenger of thy Love to his Soul, and the happy Means of converting and sanctifying it, and so prepare it for thee, that it may be fit to receive all thy saving Mercies, in Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for a Person that lies under an Arrest of Death, by any (such like) sad Accident.

*From Bishop

his Life, that there may be place for his Repentance and Restitution : O spare him a little, that he may recover his Strength before he go hence, and be no more seen. But if thou hast otherwise decreed, let the Miracles of thy Compassion, and thy wonderful Mercy, supply to him the want of the usual Measures of Time, and the Periods of Repentance, and the Trimming of his Lamp : And let the Greatness of his Calamity move thee to pardon those Defects and Degrees of Unreadiness, which may have caused this Accident upon thy Servant. Lord, stir up in him a great and effectual Contrition, that the Greatness of his Sorrow and Hatred against Sin, and the Zeal of his Love to thee, may in a short Time do the Work of many Days. And thou who regardest the Heart, and the Measures of the Mind, more than those of Time, be pleased to rescue the soul of thy Servant, from all the Evils he hath deserved, and all the Evils he fears ; that in the Songs of Eternity it may be reckon'd among thy Glories, that thou hast redeemed this Soul from the Danger of eternal Death, and made him Partaker of the Gift of God, eternal Life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

*From Mr.
Jenks.*

O Lord, thou art a merciful God, and dost not afflict willingly, nor grieve the Children of Men; but when the Necessity of our Case calls for sharp Applications, thou chastisest us for our Profit, that we may be Partakers of thy Holiness. Blessed is the Man whom thou chastenest, O Lord, and teachest him out of thy Law. O that it may be in such Mercy to the Soul of thy Servant, whom thy Hand is so hard upon at present! Now that thou hast cast him into thy Furnace, O that it may be a Means to purge out his Dross, and so fit him for thy Use and Service! O that he may learn such Things in this School of Affliction, as may stand him in stead, and do him good for ever after,

But thou, O Father of Mercies, and God of all Comfort, who knowest our Frame, and how little it is that we can endure, though it be so much that we deserve, yet be pleased in the midst of Judgment to remember Mercy, and do thou either make his Sufferings less, or thy Grace in him, add his Patience and spiritual Strength greater than all his Sufferings. O take the Load off

off from him, or lighten it to him, or enable him to bear what thou art pleased to lay upon him. Lord, all his Desires is before thee, and his Groaning is not hid from thee ; O regard his Affliction, when thou hearest his Cry : Enter not into Judgment with him, nor deal with him after his Sins, but according to thy Mercy remember thou him, for thy Goodness sake in Jesus Christ. O gracious Father, sanctify to him what thou hast laid upon him, that the present Affliction may have a comfortable Issue, and work for him a more exceeding and eternal Weight of Glory. O do thou support and bear him up under it, till it shall please thee to lessen his Pains, and grant him Ease, to the Joy and Comfort of thy Servant, and to the Glory of thy Name : And however thou shalt deal with him, let him not repine at thy Correction, nor sin in charging thee foolishly. Make him sensible, that thou dost nothing but what is more just and fit to be done ; yea, nothing but what thy Servant shall one Day have Cause to bless and praise thee for doing ; and let this Consideration teach and help him to glorify thee in the Time of his Visitation, by his humble Submission to thy Will, his patient abiding of thy Hand, and his faithful Reformation under it ; that thou

¶ A Prayer for one who is troubled with acute Pains of the Gout, Stone, Cholick, or any other bodily Distempers.

From Mr.
Spinckes.

O Blessed God, just and holy, who dost not afflict willingly, nor grieve the Children of Men; withhold not, we pray thee, thy Assistance from this thy Servant in this his sharp and painful Condition. Thine Arrows stick fast in him, and thy Hand pressed him sore. Thou makest him to possess [Months or] Days of Vanity, and wearisome Nights are appointed to him. When he lieth down he is tempted to say, When shall I arise, and the Night be gone? and he is full of Tossings to and fro, unto the Dawning of the Day. He is feeble and sore smitten; he roareth for the very Anguish of his Pain. His Sorrows are enlarged, his Pain is great and his Soul is full of Trouble. And he has none to seek to for the Ease and Mitigation of his Agonies, but to thee, O Lord! He freely owns his Sufferings to be far less than he has deserved, and that it is purely of thy Goodness that they have not been far worse than they are. But yet since they pierce deep, and are become almost too hard for him to bear, we presume to call upon thee, O Lord, for Aid, and to intreat thee not to punish him according to his Deserts: For if thou, Lord, shouldest be extreme to mark what is done amiss; O Lord, who may abide it? Spare him therefore for thy Mercies sake; and correct him, O Lord, but with Judgment, not in thine Anger, lest thou bring him to nothing. Endue him with that Patience which may enable him cheerfully to submit to thy Chastisement, and grant him that hearty Repentance for all his Sins, which may invite thee to put an End to this his fore Correction. Suffer him not to be tryed beyond his Strength; lay no more on him than thou wilt enable him to bear: Comfort thou his Soul, which melts away for very Heaviness, and let thy loving Mercy come unto him, O Lord, according to thy Word. Hear our Prayer according unto thy loving Kindness, and quicken thy Servant as thou art wont. Sanctify thy Rod to him, that it may be for thy Glory, and his Advantage: And when thy gracious Ends in afflicting him shall be once accomplished, which we know are not for thy Pleasure, but for his Profit, remove move, we beseech thee, thy Hand from him, and give him a fresh Occasion to rejoice in thy saving Health, through Jesus Christ, our blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for a Person in the Small-pox, or any such-like raging infectious Disease.

O Lord God, the Giver of Health, which sweetens all other Blessings of Life ; without which, in the Midst of the greatest Affluence of all wordly Prosperity, we are wretched and miserable ; look down, we beseech thee, with an Eye of Compassion, upon thy poor disconsolate Servant, from whom thou hast taken this great and valuable Blessing of Life, and instead thereof, brought him into so great Trouble and Misery, that he mourns all the Day long, and all the Night he washes his Bed, and waters his Couch with his Tears.

For his Loyns are filled with a sore Disease, and there is no whole Part in his Body ; but from the Sole of the Foot even to the Crown, there is nothing but Wounds, and Boils, and putrefying Sores, which stink, and are corrupt thro' his Foolishness.

Teach him, O Lord, and teach us all from hence, to consider how soon the Beauty of Life

Life is blasted, like a Flower of the Field, and our Strength dried up like a Potsheard, when thou hidest thy self from us, that we may not put our Trust in any of these transitory Things, but in thee only, the living God, who art able to save and to destroy, to kill, and to make alive.

Our Brother, whom now we behold so lamentable a Spectacle, was lately like one of us, in perfect Health and Soundness of Body ; but now thou chastenest him for Sin thou makest his Beauty to consume away, like as it were a Moth fretting a Garment. Thou breakest him with a Tempest, and his Roarings are poured like Water. Thine Arrows stick fast in him, and thy Hand presseth him sore ; so that there is Soundness in his Flesh, because of thine Anger ; neither is there any Rest in his Bones, by reason of his Sin.

O reject him not utterly, but take thy Plague away from him, for he is even consumed by the Means of thy heavy Hand. Return, O Lord, and that speedily ; for his Spirit faileth. O leave him not to himself, for tho' he is become a Monster unto many, yet his sure Trust is in thee. To thee, O Lord, does he cry ; unto thee doth he stretch forth his Hands ; his Soul thirsteth after thee as a thirsty Land. Lord ! all his Desire is before thee, and his Groaning is not hid from thee.

And put a Stop, O Lord, we beseech thee, to this raging Infection, and say to the destroying Angel. It is enough. Let it not spread abroad to sweep our Streets with the Besom of Destruction, nor to lay us in the Grave like Sheep, with the Men that have been long dead. But cover us under the Shadow of thy Wings, that we may not be afraid for any Terror by Night; nor for the Arrow that flieth by Day; nor for the Pestilence that walketh in Darkness; nor for the Sicknes that destroyeth in the Noon-day: But that with Ease in our Minds, and Health in our Bodies, we may serve thee cheerfully all the Days of our Life, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for a Person in a Consumption, or any lingering Disease.

From Mr. Jenks. O Good God, thou hast long kept thy Servant under thy chastening Hand: Thou hast made him acquainted with Grief, and his Sicknes is even become his old familiar Companion. Yet, O blessed Lord, grant that he may not think it long to wait thy leasure, who art pleased pleased to wait so long for the Return of a Sinner, and who art very pitiful and of tender Mercy, having kind Intentions, even in thy bitter Dispensations: Yea, Chastenest whom thou lovest, and scourgest every Son whom thou receivest. Teach him, O gracious Father, to see Love in thy Rod, as well as Justice in all thy Dealings; that he may humble himself under thy mighty Hand, and also think it good for him to be afflicted, and patiently wait for the Lord, in hopes of Good out of this Evil, and at last an happy Conclusion of that long Visitation. Blessed be thy Name, O Father of Mercies, that thou dost not pour out all thy Wrath; but in Judgment thinkest upon Mercy. To make the Affliction supportable, give some Ease and Relaxation from torturing Pains, mingling many good Ingredients with this bitter Potion. O make him so sensible of thy Kindness, that he may be not only contented, but thankful under thy Hand.

Yet that his Faith may not fail, nor his Patience be wearied out, return, O Lord, at the last, and give thy Servant a Discharge from this Warfare, and say to the Affliction, It is enough. Make him glad according to the Time wherein thou hast afflicted him, and wherein he hath suffered so much Ad-

And till thou shalt please to remember him in such Mercy, O grant that he may neither despise thy Chastening, nor faint under thy Rebukes ; but take all as he ought, and employ the Time which thou lendest, and improve the Affliction which thou continuest, as a gracious Opportunity for his Soul's Advantage : That under the Decays of the outer Man, the Inner may be rewarded Day by Day ; and all that is wanting in his spiritual Concerns, may be filled up ; and whatever pertains to his everlasting Salvation be promoted and perfected, thro' the Riches of thy Grace, and the Multitude of thy Mercies in Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for one that is Bed-rid.

*From Mr.
Lewis.*

O Lord our God, who are art the Father of Mercies, and the God of all Comfort, our Strength in Time of Trouble, and who hast Mercy on thine Afflicted ! Have Pity, we entreat thee on this Melancholy and forlorn Condition of thy Servant. Thou hast long since confined him a Prisoner to his Bed, and seemest to have passed Sentence on him, that he shall never come down from this Bed on which he is gone up. O do thou be pleased to sweeten this Confinement to him ! Support his Spirits, which are apt to droop under it ; refresh his Mind, which is apt to be uneasie and melancholy at the Thought of it. Do thou make his Bed for him, that it may be easie and comfortable to him. Cause him to remember thee, and meditate on thee, in the Night-watches. Give Sleep to his Eyes, and Slumber to his Eye-lids, and so his Bed may comfort him under his Confinement to it, and ease his Complaint of being always in it : Make him to commune with his own Heart : Let him make this Advantage of his Solitude, to search and try his Ways ; calmly to debate within himself the Manner of his acting, that so he may see in what he hath done amiss, and may turn unto the Lord with all his Heart and Soul. Let this Affliction be a Means to prepare him for the Enjoyment of thy Presence, in which is Fulness of Joy ; and let him be the more patient under it for that Reason. Make him thankful that thou hast by this Means kept him from the Company of those whose evil Communication might have corrupted him ; and hast taken him out of a World, by whose Snares and Temptations he might have been prevailed with to forsake thee, and turn from the Way of thy Commandments ; that thou hast taken this Way to secure him to thy self, and make him a Partaker of thy Joy. And, O grant that he may not by Murmuring and Repining hinder this thy Desire, being fulfill'd in him, but that he may make such Use of the Leisure and Opportunity he hath now given him, as to make his Peace with thee, and be fitted for the Enjoyment of thine Inheritance with the Saints in Light, for Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

O Blessed Lord, the Father of Mercies, and the God of all Comforts, we beseech thee look down in Pity and Compassion upon this thy afflicted Servant. Thou writest bitter Things against him, and makest him to possess his former Iniquities; thy Wrath lieth hard upon him, and his Soul is full of Trouble. But, O merciful God, who hast written thy holy Word for our Learning, that we thro' Patience and Comfort of thy holy Scriptures might have Hope; give him a right Understanding of himself, and of thy Threats and Promises, that he may neither cast away his Confidence in thee, nor place it any where but in thee. Give him Strength against all his Temptations, and heal all his Distempers. Break not the bruised Reed, nor quench the smoking Flax. Shut not up thy tender Mercies in Displeasure, but make him to hear of Joy and Gladness, that the Bones which thou hast broken may rejoyce. ¶ Another for the same, or for one under deep Melancholy and Dejection of Spirit.

*From Mr.

O Most good and gracious Lord,
thou knowest our Frame, and art a God full of Compassion to pity and relieve thy Servants, under their Trouble and Oppression. Look down, we humbly pray thee, with thy wanted Pity, and remember in tender Mercy the Work of thy Hands, our disconsolate Friend, this troubled Soul, that is even distracted in suffering thy Terrors : Thy Wrath lies hard upon him, and all thy Waves are gone over him ; they disturb his Peace, oppress his Mind, and make him unfit rightly to use his Reason, or discharge his Duty. O thou that spakest the Winds and Waves into Obedience and Calmness, settle and quiet his discomposed Thoughts ; speak Peace and Satisfaction to his troubled Mind, and give him Comfort and sure Confidence in the Sense of thy Pardon and Love. Lord, help his Unbelief, and encrease his Faith.
Tho' he now walks in the Valley and Shadow of Death, let thy Rod and thy Staff comfort him. Let him trust in the Name of the Lord, and stay upon his God. In the Multitude of the Thoughts and Sorrows that he hath in his Heart, O let thy Comfort come in to refresh his Soul. Be thou pleased, Lord, to deliver and ease him of the Load that lies upon his Spirit : And let in a Beam of thy heavenly Light to scatter and dispel all the Clouds and Darkness, in which his Mind is wrapt up. O direct to the Means most proper for his Help. and bless and prosper them so, that they may be effectual to promote his Recovery out of this sad and doleful Estate. Incline his Ears to wholesome Counsels, and fashion his Heart to receive due Impressions : O gracious Father, pity his Frailty, and forgive his Sin : Heal him, O Lord, both in Soul and Body, and rebuke his Distemper so, that his disquieted Soul may return to its Rest. O raise him up, and make him whole ; yea, make haste, O Lord, to shew such Mercy upon him, even for thine own Mercies Sake, in Jesus Christ our blessed Saviour and Redeemer.

From Bp;
Patrick.

DEfend him, O most gracious Father, from dishonouring thee and his Religion, by distrusting thy Goodness, and calling thy Loving-Kindness in question towards those that are sincerely bent to please thee.

Re-

Remove all troublesome Imaginations from him, and give him a clear Understanding of thee and of himself, that no causeless Fears and Jealousies may overwhelm him, nor his Heart sink within him, from any unprofitable Sadness and Dejections of Spirit. Compose therefore, we beseech thee, his broken and disturb'd Thoughts, quiet his troubled and disorder'd Mind, and appease all the Ragings and Tumults of his Soul, by a sweet Sense of thy tender Mercies, and of the Love of thy Son Jesus Christ to Mankind. keep him from making any rash Judgments and Conclusions of himself, and much more from charging thee foolishly ; and give him so much Light and Judgment amidst all the Darkness and Confusion of his Thoughts, that he may not think himself forsaken by thee, but rather that he may firmly believe, that if he does the best he can, thou requirest no more of him. And good Lord, enable him to look beyond these Clouds, to that blessed Place whither his Saviour is gone before, in which there is no Darkness at all ; and (in an humble Hope of coming to the same Place where he is) to content himself with any Condition whilst he is here, so far remote from that Region of Light and Glory.

¶ A Prayer for one who is hurried with wicked and blasphemous Thoughts.

*From Mr.
Lewis.*

O Lord God, who art the Father of our Spirits, and to whom all Thoughts are open, and all Desires known ; we humbly entreat thy fatherly Goodness to succour and relieve this thy Servant, who labours under the Burden of wicked Thoughts , and blasphemous Suggestions. Thou knowest, O Lord, how painful and uneasy such Thoughts are to him, how contrary to the Sense he has of thy Excellencies and Perfections, and how earnestly he desires to be freed from them. Thou seest how much his Soul is cast down. and how disquieted his Spirit is within him. That at these hellish Suggestions his Heart trembles, and is moved as it were out of its Place. And tho' the Troubles of his Heart are thus enlarged, he finds no Way to be brought out of his Distress. To thee therefore we humbly presume to apply our selves, and to entreat that thou wilt look upon his Affliction and his Pain, and for-forgive him all his Sins. We know, O Lord, that nothing is impossible with thee, that thou stoppest the Raging of the Seas, and canst as easily rectify the tumultuous Thoughts of a raging Mind. O let thy Power and Greatness be shewn in healing the Mind of this thy Servant. Cleanse the Thoughts of his Heart by the Inspiration of thy holy Spirit. Suffer them not to be defiled by any wicked, prophane, or blasphemous Suggestions mixing with them. But heal the Soul of thy Servant, by enabling him to stifle and suppress all such Thoughts as tend to vex and torment it, to rob it of its Peace, and deprive it of its Innocence. To this end, enable thy Servant to keep all his Passions within due bounds, to be of an equal and steady Temper, to be mild and gentle in his Behaviour, and neither to set his Hopes nor his Fears too high. Make him to abide in the Calling wherein he is called, and not forsake the Station wherein thy Providence has placed him, but to his Duty in that State of Life to which thou hast called him. Let him not think the worse of thee, or accuse thy Providence of want of Care of him; since if thou pleasedst thou mightest have permitted such Thoughts to have continued perpetually without any Intermission, or

or at least to have visited him much oftner, and in a more frightful manner, without the least Diminution of thy Justice. Make him sensible, therefore, of the wise and kind Reasons of these Afflictions ; that if they are duly improved, they may be powerful Preservatives of his Soul against the prevailing Sins of a loose Age ; may lessen his Inclinations to the Enjoyments of this Life, and deaden his Appetite to sensual Pleasure and the perishing Goods of this World ; that by these Afflictions he may be disposed to compassionate the Sufferings of others, and less to envy their Height and Prosperity ; that they tend to make him more to feel his own Infirmities, and to perceive the Want of divine Assistance, and to carry his Thoughts to Heaven : All which Advantages shew, that it is inFaithfulness that thou afflictest Mankind ; and that altho' for the present all Affliction is grievous, yet it is our own Fault if it does not work out for us a more exceeding and eternal weight of Glory. But in vain, O God ! are all these Considerations, unless thou pleasest to set them home on our Minds. To thee therefore we address our selves, that thou wouldst open the Eyes of this thy Servant, that he may see and know the wise and gracious Dispensations of thy Providence, and by hum-

humbling himself under them, may be at last lifted up, and made a Partaker of that Peace and Joy which thou beflowest on all thy faithful Servants. Grant this for Jesus Christ his Sake our only Mediator and Advocate.

¶ A Prayer for one who is afflicted with a prophane Mistrust of divine Truths, and blasphemous Thoughts.

From Mr.
Kettlewell.

O Most gracious God, who by the Power of thy Spirit art only able to cure our Sicknefs, and overcome the Unruliness of our Minds; protect this thy Servant, we humbly and earnestly entreat thee, against all prophane Doubts and Mistrusts of thy Truths, and against all blasphemous Thoughts and Suggestions about divine Things, which either his own melancholy and disorder'd Fancy, or the busie and wicked Adversary, are ready to represent and suggest to him.

Never suffer them, O God, to stagger and weaken his Faith, nor to hinder or clog his Practice; nor, if thou pleasest, by their wearisome Conflicts, to be a Pain and Burden to his Life. Preserve him not only from the Sin, but if it may seem good to thy fatherly Wisdom, from the Temptation to, and from the Trouble and Sorrow of them.

But if it be thy blessed Will to continue these prophane and terrifying Thoughts for his Tryal and Humiliation; Lord, make him sensible, and comfort his disturbed Heart with the Sense thereof, that it will not be imputed as a Sin to him, to the Tempted therewith, but to yield to the Temptation; Convince him that in thy Sight he is not guilty of the same, whilst he neither believes nor gives Place to them; not altering or abating either his Faith or his Practice thereupon. Let him know, that these distrustful and blasphemous Thoughts are the Enemies Sin, who to try and tempt him, studiously and wickedly suggests them, not his, who instead of hearkening thereto, and complying therewith, immediately resists them as soon as he perceives them, and casts them out with Horror and Indignation.

Oh that during this Trial he may learn to depend entirely upon thee, without whom he can do nothing, that as often as these prophane Thoughts are thrown into his Mind, he may find Grace to overcome them, and without the least Allowance or Delay, to throw them out again, and that he may learn to bear with himself, and to shew Patience under them, as under every other Affliction and Trial of thy ordering, trust-

trusting to thy Grace to assist him, and to thy Mercy to accept him, whilst he is humbly labouring under the same ; and to thy Goddness, to rid him of them in thy due Time, for our dear Lord and only Saviour Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for one under the Dread of God's Wrath, and everlasting Damnation.

*From Mr.
Lewis.*

O Almighty God, the Aid of all that need, and the Helper of them that flee to thee for Succour ; accept, we beseech thee, the Prayers that we now put up for this thy Servant, labouring under the dismal Apprehensions of thy Wrath. O, who may stand in thy Sight when once thou art angry ? his Flesh trembles for Fear of thee, and he is afraid of thy Judgments. He is not able to bear up under the Thoughts of thy Displeasure, that thy Mercy is clean gone, and that thou wilt shew him Favour no more.

But do not thou, O God, enter into Judgment with him ; make him sensible that tho' the Wages of Sin be Death, yet the Gift of God is eternal Life : That thou hatest the Death of a Sinner, and art not willing that any should perish : That thou always punishest less than we deserve, and in the midst of Judgment remembreſt Mercy : Oh do thou ſet this home on his Mind, that ſo he may be brought off from his Diſtruſt of thy Mercy, and thinking his Sins are unpardonable by thee. For his Sake who ſuffer'd on the Croſs, and made there a full, perfect and ſufficient Sacrifice, Oblation and Satisfaction for the Sins of the whole World, deliver him from thy Wrath, and from everlaſting Damnation. Hide not thy Face from him, but revive his Soul with a Senſe of thy Love, and the Hopes of thy Pardon, and obtaining the Joy of thy Salvation ; that ſo he may be raiſed again from this Dejection he is now afflicted with, and may ſhew with Gladneſs what thou haſt done for his Soul ; all which we humbly beg for Jeſus Chriſt's ſake. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for a Lunatick.

*From Mr.
Jenks.*

O Lord, the only wiſe God, thou giveſt Underſtanding, and takeſt it away as thou pleaſeſt ; and thou art holy and righteous in all that ever thou doſt, though the Reaſon and Meaning of many of thy Works is unknown to us, yet ſtill thou knoweſt well what thou haſt to do : And we muſt be dumb, and not open

our Mouths, when its thy doing. The Strokes which thou hast laid on thy poor Creature ^{might} ~~would~~ ^{ly said} be just upon any of us; and we must acknowledge it owing wholly to thy Mercy that it is any better with us: But in tender Compassion of his pitiable Condition, we take upon us ^{most humbly} to beg thy merciful Relief in his behalf; for thou, Lord, that givest Sense and Discretion, canst as easily renew them when impair'd; and thou that madest thy Servant out of nothing, canst also bring him to use his Reason right as he ought.

O dispel the Clouds in which now his Soul is wrapt up; that he may come to a good Understanding of himself, and a right Mind. Reduce and heal his craz'd and disorder'd Understanding, settle and quiet his Passions, pacify and compose his Fancy and Imagination. Have pity, we beseech thee, O Lord, upon him, and impute not unto him any Thing that is now said or done amiss by him: But in Mercy pass it by, as if it had not been said or done at all.

~~O O that thou wouldst direct to some Means for Help in this Case! and make him tractable to the Use of Remedies, and willing and ready to comply with the Advice of his Friends, till he shall be in a better Capacity to manage and help himself.~~
^{Give a blessing we beseech thee to all means that are used for her Recovery, and make him more obedient}

And where no Means will reach to work the Cure ; thou that canst open the Doors which are barr'd against us, and art never at such a Loss but thou knowest how to deliver : O reveal thy glorious Arm to bring Salvation from above, and command that Deliverance which is out of our Prospect to see effected. That thy Name may have all the Glory of such thy great and wonderful Mercy in Jesus Christ. Amen.]

¶ A Prayer for natural Fools or Madmen.

*From Mr.
Kettlewell.*

O Almighty and most merciful Father, pity, we entreat thee, this thy poor Creature, who knows not his own Wants, nor how to ask for thy Mercies : But as he is not capable of doing Things to please thee, so let nothing which he doth offend thee. He is still as an Infant, O God, not arrived to the Use of Reason : O deal with him as thou dost with them, and as such admit him into the Kingdom of Heaven.

And as his want of Understanding unfits him to do any Thing for thee, so doth it likewise to do any Thing for himself; and therefore he needs to have the more done for him by thee, and by the good Instruments of thy Providence. O let thy Care, good Lord, supply the Wants of his own. Give thy holy Angels Charge to him as they do to helpless Children. Give thy Saints, and those who are any way concern'd with him, the Inclination to be Understanding; and Eyes, and Feet, and Hands to him, as to one who is as if he had none of these of his own, but wants to have them supplied out of thy Provision; and do thou in thy Wisdom prevent those Evils which he can't foresee, and put those by which he wants Understanding to remove; especially, O Lord, keep him from doing any Thing that is mischievous, either to others or to himself.

Oh, thou who art found of them that seek thee not, shew Mercy to this thy Servant, who extreamly needs thee, tho' he can't seek unto thee; thou, O Lord, knowest his Wants, though he is insensible and ignorant of them: And tho' he cannot speak for himself, yet his Wants speak and cry aloud for him. Oh hear their Cry, which calls to thee for Pity. Hear us for him who is ¶ A Prayer for a sick Seaman.

O Most great and glorious Lord, God of our Salvation, the Ends of the Earth, and of them that remain in the broad Sea ; under whose powerful Protection we are alike secure in every Place, and without whose Providence over us , we can nowhere be in Safety ; look down, we beseech thee, upon us thy unworthy Servants, who are called to behold thy Wonders in the Deep, and to perform our several Duties in the great Waters.

Thou art our Refuge and Strength, a very present Help in Trouble, and therefore we fly unto thee for Success in all our Needs ; but in particular now we come unto thee, for Mercy on our distressed Brother, whom thou hast been pleased to visit with the Rod of Affliction.

The Waves of Death, O Lord, encompass him about, and the Sorrows of Hell take hold upon him, 2 Sam. 22. 5, 6.

O leave him not to himself, nor let him be given over to a Spirit of Slumber and Darkness, but open thou his Eyes, that he may behold the wondrous Things of thy Law, and help him in all Things rightly to state his Accounts with thee his God ; that so from the Sickness

ness of his Body he may find Health and Salvation to his Soul, which is the great End of all thy righteous Judgments and Afflictions that are sent upon us.

Let him seriously consider and reflect within himself, from this small Expression of thy Displeasure, what a dreadful thing it is to fall into the Hands of the living God; and learn from thence, for ever after, if it shall please thee to raise him up again, to preserve a more awful Sense of thy divine Majesty upon his Spirit, and to live more soberly, righteously, and godlily, in this present World.

We know, O Lord, by sad Experience, that many are the Enemies of Peace, and that the whole World lieth in Wickedness; but let him not follow a Multitude to do Evil, nor give his Consent to the Enticement of Sinners, but being perfectly redeemed from all vain Conversation, and renewed in the Spirit of his Mind, let him walk before thee with a perfect Heart, and spend the Residue of his Days in thy Faith and Fear.

Or if otherwise thou hast determin'd concerning him, O be pleased to give him sufficient Grace and Strength, and Time, to make his Calling and Election sure, before he goes hence and be no more seen. Revive his drooping Spirits, fortify his Heart, and as be

he decays in the outer, strengthen him in the inner Man, by setting before him the Hopes of a blessed Immortality, as an Anchor of the Soul, both sure and stedfast.

In fine, O Lord, if thou art pleased to take him hence, be thou his Life in Death, and conduct him safe from the troublesome Waves of the World, into the still Waters of Comfort, even to that blessed Haven of Felicity, where he may no more be tossed with the Tempest of Affliction, nor in danger of making Shipwreck of his Faith, but may rest secure from the stormy Winds and Tempests, and possess his Vessel in Sanctification and Honour, in Peace and Security, and a full Fruition of Happiness in the Kingdom of Heaven for evermore. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for a sick Soldier or Seaman.

O Most mighty Lord, the Fountain of Health and Life, Strength and Courage, the Aid and Support of all that fly unto thee for Succour, with whom is no Respect of Persons, but every one that feareth thee (whether he be rich or poor, learn'd or unlearn'd) it is accepted of thee, we beseech thee mercifully to look down upon our poor Brother, who is now fallen under the Rod of thy heavy Displeasure.

We

We know, O Lord, that all thy Judgments are principally intended for our good, in the End, by the Reformation of our Lives and Manners; and therefore we most humbly beseech thee to let thy present Judgment have that good Effect upon our Brother, that he may lead the rest of his Life as a faithful Soldier of Jesus Christ, and not continue to harden his Heart, like Pharaoh, against all the powerful and repeated Instances of thy Mercies and Judgments towards him.

If thou hast design'd this Sickness shall terminate in his Death, O be pleased to fit and prepare him for it; or if otherwise in Mercy thou hast determin'd to spare him, O let him not return to any of his former sinful Courses, but let him always keep in mind the Promise that he made to thee in Baptism, of renouncing the World, the Flesh, and the Devil, and which he now again heartily renews (as we hope) in this his Day of Visitation.

We know, O Lord, that many Temptations will unavoidably assault him in the State of Life wherein he is engag'd, and therefore we most humbly beseech thee to give him such a Portion of thy blessed Spirit, as may enable him to fight with as much Resolution and Courage against his Spiritual Enemies.

210 Occasional Prayers for the Sick.

Enemies, as the Nature of his Post obliges him to do, upon a just Occasion, against his temporal; ever remembering that the greatest of Conquests, is that which is made upon our selves, and that no Victory is so truly brave and honourable, as that which is obtain'd over our Lusts and brutish Affections.

Wherefore give him Grace, we beseech thee, O Lord, to abhor that which is Evil, and to cleave to that which is Good; let all Blasphemy and Prophaneness, all Riot and Drunkenness and Luxury, and Lasciviousness be far from him, and let him carefully follow the Rule our Saviour hath set him, of doing Violence to no Man, accusing no Man falsely, and being content with his own Wages; so that having put on the whole Armour of God, he may be able to stand against the Wiles of the Devil; and whenever thou shalt be pleased to put an end to his Warfare (either now or hereafter) he may cheerfully resign up his Soul into thy Hands, in those sweet and comfortable Words of the Apostle, I have fought a good Fight, I have finished my Course, I have kept the Faith, henceforth there is laid up for me a Crown of Righteousness, which the Lord the righteous Judge shall give unto all those that love and fear him, and put their Trust in his Mercy. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for a Person condemn'd to die.

From Dr.
Inet.

O Most just and holy Lord God, who bringest to Light the hidden Things of Darknels, and by thy just and wise Providence, dost bring Sin to Shame and Punishment; disappointing the Hopes of wicked Men; visiting their Sins upon them in this present Life, that thou mayest deter others from the Evil of their Ways, and save their Souls in the Day of our Lord Jesus: O Lord! in Mercy look down upon this thy Servant, who now is before thee to confess thy Justice in making him a sad Example to others. He with Sorrow and Shame confesses it would be just with thee, should Death eternal be the Wages of his Sins, and everlasting Sorrow the Recompence of his Iniquity. He has, we confess, O Lord! slighted thy Mercy, and abused thy Goodness, and has therefore no Reason to expect any other than to be made an everlasting Sacrifice to thy Justice. When thou hast by the Ministry of thy Word, and the Interposition of thy Providence call'd him to Repentance, he has stopt his Ears, and slighted thine Admonitions. O! how just therefore would it be now with thee to stop thine Ears, and not to hear him in

212 Occasional Prayers for the Sick.

this Day of Trouble, when Distress and Anguish is come upon him ! How oft has he made a mock of thy tender Offers of Grace and Mercy ? How just would it therefore be with thee to mock now his Calamity is come upon him, and when thy just Judgments have overtaken him ? He confesses that he hath hardened his Heart, notwithstanding all thy Importunities to him to repent and live : That he has still gone on from one Wickness to another, with greediness acting over the Works of Darkness, and even hating to be reformed : That he has notoriously broken his Baptismal Vows, and Engagements, and thereby given Encouragement to the Enemies of our most holy Faith to blaspheme and speak ill of it : And that on these Accounts he has nothing to expect but that thou shouldst deal with him according to his Sins, and reward him according to the Multitude of his Offences. But thou, O God, hast been pleased to declare, that with thee is Mercy and plenteous Redemption : That thou willest not the Death of a Sinner, but rather that he should repent and live. Thou hast so loved the World, that thou gavest thy only begotten Son, that whosoever would believe in him should not perish, but have everlasting Life. O let

let not him, whom we are now commending to thy Mercy, for ever perish and be lost. Tho' he be one of the chiefest of Sinners, yet for thine own sake, who delight-est in shewing Mercy; for thy Son's sake, who came on purpose to call Sinners to Repentance, and shed even his Blood for the remission of Sins; have mercy upon a poor Wretch, that owns he deserves eternally to die. Pardon and forgive him, and let him find Mercy in this his time of need.
 Pardon, we earnestly entreat thee, his wilful and his heedless Follies, his Errors and his crying and notorious Sins; particularly that for which he is now to die. O Lord!
 thou God of Mercy, who art abundant in Goodness, have pity on the Work of thine own Hands: Look not on him as he is polluted with his own Sins, and made a partaker of other Mens, but have a respect to him thro' his Merits who came to take away the Sins of the World. Bury his Sins in his Grave, and however they may rise in this World to shame him, let them never rise in that which is to come, to condemn him; and whatever he suffers here, let him be blessed hereafter, among them, whose Unrighteousness is forgiven, and whose Sin is covered. However Men may others from being guilty of the like Wickedness, kill his Body ; let neither his Body, nor his Soul, be destroyed in Hell, but let both be eternally saved, for Jesus Christ

The Ministration of Publick BAPTISM of Infants, to be used in Churches.

- ¶ The People are to be admonished, that it is most convenient that Baptism should not be administered but upon Sundays, and other Holy-days, when the most number of Persons come together; as well for that the Congregation there present may testifie the receiving of them that be newly baptized into the Number of Christ's Church; as also because in the Baptism of Infants, every Man present may be put in remembrance of his own Profession made to God in his Baptism. For which cause also it is expedient that Baptism be ministered in the vulgar Tongue. Nevertheless (if Necessity so require) Children may be baptized upon any other Day.
- ¶ And Note, That there shall be for every Male Child to be baptized, two Godfathers and one Godmother; and for every Female, one Godfather and two Godmothers.
- ¶ When there are Children to be baptized, the Parent shall give knowledge thereof over Night, or in the Morning before the beginning of Morning Prayer, to the Curate. And then the Godfathers and Godmothers, and the People with the Children, must be ready at the Font, either immediately after the last Lesson at Morning Prayer, or else immediately after the last Lesson at Evening Prayer, as the Curate by his Discretion shall appoint. And the Priest coming to the Font (which is then to be filled with pure Water) and standing there, shall say,

Q. HATH this Child been already Baptized or no?

- ¶ If they answer No, then shall the Priest proceed as follows.

Dearly beloved, forasmuch as all Men are conceived and born in Sin, and that our Saviour Christ saith, None can enter into the Kingdom of God except he be regenerate and born anew of Water and of the Holy Ghost ; I beseech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that of his bounteous Mercy he will grant this Child that Thing which by Nature he cannot have, that he may be baptized with Water and the holy Ghost, and received into Christ's holy Church, and be made a lively Member of the same.

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

Let us Pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who of thy great Mercy didst save Noah and his Family in the Ark from perishing by Water, and also didst safely lead the Children of Israel thy People through the Red Sea, figuring thereby thy holy Baptism ; and by the Baptism of thy well-beloved Son Jesus Christ in the River Jordan, didst sanctifie Water to the myssical washing away of Sin ; We beseech thee for thine infinite Mercies, that thou wilt mercifully look upon this Child ; wash him, and sanctifie him with the Holy Ghost, that he being delivered vered from thy Wrath, may be received into the Ark of Christ's Church; and being stedfast in Faith, joyful through Hope, and rooted in Charity, may so pass the Waves of this troublesome World, that finally he may come to the Land of everlasting Life, there to reign with thee World without end, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALmighty and Immortal God, the Aid of all that need, the Helper of all that flee to thee for Succour, the Life of them that believe, and the Resurrection of the Dead; we call upon thee for this Infant, that he coming to thy holy Baptism, may receive remission of his Sins by spiritual Regeneration. Receive him, O Lord, as thou hast promised by thy well-beloved Son, saying, Ask, and ye shall have; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: So give now unto us that ask; let us that seek, find; open the gate unto us that knock; that this Infant may enjoy the everlasting Benediction of thy heavenly washing, and may come to the eternal Kingdom which thou hast promised by Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest stand up, and the Priest shall say,

Hear the Words of the Gospel written by St. Mark, in the 10th Chapter, at the 13th Verse. P 3 They

THEY brought young Children to Christ, that he should touch them ; and his Disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little Children to come unto me, and forbid them not ; for of such is the Kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, whosoever shall not receive the Kingdom of God as a little Child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his Arms, put his Hands upon them, and blessed them.

¶ After the Gospel is read, the Minister shall make this brief Exhortation upon the Words of the Gospel.

Beloved, ye hear in this Gospel, the Words of our Saviour Christ, that he commanded the Children to be brought unto him ; how he blamed those that would have kept them from him, how he exhorted all Men to follow their Innocency. Ye perceive how by his outward Gesture and Deed he declared his good Will towards them ; for he embraced them in his Arms, he laid his Hands upon them, and blessed them. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly believe, that he will likewise favourably receive this present Infant, that he will embrace him with the Arms of his Mercy, cy, that he will give unto him the Blessing of eternal Life, and make him partaker of his everlasting Kingdom. Wherefore we being thus persuaded of the good Will of our heavenly Father towards this Infant, declared by his Son Jesus Christ, and nothing doubting but that he favourably alloweth this charitable Work of ours, in bringing this Infant to his holy Baptism, let us faithfully and devoutly give Thanks unto him, and say,

ALmighty and everlasting God, heavenly Father, we give thee humble Thanks that thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy Grace and Faith in thee; encrease this Knowledge, and confirm this Faith in us evermore. Give thy holy Spirit to this Infant, that he may be born again, and be made an Heir of everlasting Salvation, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest speak unto the Godfathers and Godmothers in this wise.

DEarly beloved, ye have brought this Child here to be baptized, ye have prayed that our Lord Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to receive him, to release him of his Sins, to sanctifie him with the Holy Ghost, to give him the Kingdom of Heaven, and everlasting Life. Ye have heard also that our Lord Jesus Christ hath promised also in his Gospel, to grant all these things that ye have prayed for; which promise he for his part will most surely keep and perform. Wherefore after this Promise made by Christ, this Infant must also faithfully for his part, promise by you that are his Sureties (until he come of Age to take it upon himself) that he will renounce the Devil and all his Works, and constantly believe God's holy Word, and obediently keep his Commandments.

I demand therefore,

DO ST thou in the Name of this Child renounce the Devil and all his Works, the vain Pomp and Glory of the World, with all covetous desires of the same, and the carnal desires of the Flesh, so that thou wilt not follow, nor be led by them?

Ans^w. I renounce them all.

Minister,

DO ST thou believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth?

And

And in Jesus Christ his only begotten Son our Lord ? And that he was conceived by the Holy Ghost ; born of the Virgin Mary ; that he suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried ; that he went down into Hell, and also did rise again the third Day ; that he ascended into Heaven, and sitteth at the right Hand of God the Father Almighty ; and from thence shall come again at the End of the World to judge the quick and the dead.

And dost thou believe in the Holy Ghost ; the holy Catholick Church ; the Communion of Saints ; the Remission of Sins ; the Resurrection of the Flesh ; and everlasting Life after Death ?

Answe. All this I stedfastly believe.

Minister.

WILT thou then be baptized in this Faith ?

Answe. This is my Desire.

Minister.

WILT thou then obediently keep God's holy Will and Commandments, and walk in the same all the Days of thy Life ?

Answe. I will,

¶ Then

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

O Merciful God, grant that the old Adam in this Child may be so buried, that the new Man may be raised up in him.
Amen.

Grant that all carnal Affections may die in him, and that all Things belonging to the Spirit may live and grow in him. Amen.

Grant that he may have Power and Strength to have Victory, and to triumph against the Devil, the World, and the Flesh.
Amen.

Grant that whosoever is here dedicated to thee by our Office and Ministry, may also be endued with heavenly Virtues, and everlastingly rewarded, through thy Mercy, O blessed Lord God, who dost live and govern all Things, World without end.
Amen.

A Almighty and everlasting God, whose most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, for the Forgiveness of our Sins, did shed out of his most precious Side both Water and Blood, and gave Commandment to his Disciples, that they should go teach all Nations, and baptize them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; Regard, we beseech thee, the Supplications plications of thy Congregation ; sanctifie this Water to the mystical washing away of Sin ; and grant that this Child now to be baptized therein may receive the fulness of thy Grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful and elect Children, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest shall take the Child into his Hands, and shall say to the Godfathers and Godmothers,

Name this Child.

And then naming it after them (if they shall certifie him that the Child may well endure it) he shall dip it in the Water discreetly and warily, saying,

N I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ But if they certifie that the Child is weak, it shall suffice to pour Water upon it, saying the aforesaid Words.

N I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

WE receive this Child into the Congregation of Christ's Flock, * and do sign him with the Sign of the Cross, in token that hereafter he shall not be ashamed to confess the Faith of Christ

cruci-

crucified, and manfully to fight under his Banner, against Sin, the World, and the Devil, and to continue Christ's faithful Soldier and Servant unto his Life's end. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

SEeing now, dearly beloved Brethren, that this Child is regenerate and grafted into the Body of Christ's Church, let us give Thanks unto Almighty God for these Benefits, and with one accord make our Prayers unto him, that this Child may lead the rest of his Life according to this beginning.

¶ Then shall be said, All kneeling,

OUR Father, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done in Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this Day our daily Bread. And forgive us our Trespases, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into Temptation; but deliver us from Evil. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

WE yield thee hearty Thanks, most merciful Father, that it hath pleased thee to regenerate this Infant with thy holy Spirit; to receive him for thine own Child

Child by Adoption, and to incorporate him into thy holy Church. And we humbly beseech thee to grant, that he being dead unto Sin, and living unto Righteousness, and being buried with Christ in his Death, may crucifie the old Man, and utterly abolish the whole Body of Sin; and that as he is made Partaker of the Death of thy Son, he may also be Partaker of his Resurrection; so that finally with the residue of thy holy Church, he may be an Inheriter of thine everlasting Kingdom, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then all standing up, the Priest shall say to the Godfathers and Godmothers, this Exhortation following,

FOrasmuch as this Child hath promised by you his Sureties, to renounce the Devil and all his Works, to believe in God, and to serve him; ye must remember that it is your Parts and Duties to see that this Infant be taught, so soon as he shall be able to learn, what a solemn Vow, Promise and Profession he hath here made by you. And that he may know these Things the better, ye shall call upon him to hear Sermons, and chiefly ye shall provide that he may learn the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the ten Commandments in the vulgar Tongue, and all other things which a Christian ought to know
and

and believe to his Soul's Health ; and that this Child may be vertuously brought up to lead a godly and christian Life, remembering always, that Baptism doth represent unto us our Profession, which is, to follow the Example of our Saviour Christ, and to be made like unto him ; that as he died and rose again for us, so should we who are baptized, die from Sin, and rise again unto Righteousness, continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt Affections, and daily proceeding in all Virtue and Godliness of living.

¶ Then shall he add and say,

YE are to take Care that this Child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him, so soon as he can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the ten Commandments in the vulgar Tongue, and be further instructed in the Church Catechism set forth for that purpose.

IT is certain by God's Word, that Children which are baptized, dying before they commit actual Sin, are undoubtedly saved.

TO take away all Scruple concerning the Use of the Sign of the Cross in Baptism ; the true Explication thereof, and the just Reasons for the retaining of it, may be seen in the xxxth Canon, first published in the Year MDCIV. The

The Ministration of Private BAPTISM of Children in Houses.

- ¶ The Curate of the Parish shall often admonish the People that they defer not the Baptism of their Children longer than the first or second Sunday next after their Birth, or other Holy-day falling between, unless upon a great and reasonable Cause, to be approved by the Curate.
- ¶ And also they shall warn them, that without like great Cause and Necessity, they procure not their Children to be baptized at home in their Houses. But when need shall compel them so to do, then Baptism shall be administred on this fashion.
- ¶ First, Let the Minister of the Parish (or in his Absence, any other lawful Minister that can be procured) with them that are present call upon God, and say the Lord's Prayer, and so many of the Collects appointed to be said before in the Form of publick Baptism, as the time and present exigence will suffer. And then the Child being named by some one that is present, the Minister shall pour Water upon it, saying these Words.

N I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

- ¶ Then all kneeling down, the Minister shall give Thanks unto God, and say,

WE yield thee hearty Thanks, most merciful Father, that it hath pleased thee to regenerate this Infant with thy holy holy Spirit; to receive him for thine own Child by Adoption, and to incorporate him into thy holy Church. And we humbly beseech thee to grant, that as he is now made Partaker of the Death of thy Son, so he may inherit thine everlasting Kingdom, through the same, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ And let them not doubt, but that the Child so baptized is lawfully and sufficiently baptized, and ought not to be baptized again. Yet nevertheless, if the Child which is after this sort baptized, do afterwards live, it is expedient that it be brought into the Church, to the intent that if the Minister of the same Parish did himself baptize that Child, the Congregation may be certified of the true Form of Baptism, by him privately before-used.
